

REVIEW: The Wilbury Group's Bloody Bloody Andrew Jackson

By William F. Oakes, East Bay News

Odds are, when you encounter a play entitled "Bloody Bloody Andrew Jackson", you will have no lukewarm reaction to it. You'll either love the show or hate it. Well folks, I loved it. The production by Providence's The Wilbury Group presents American history as a rock 'n' roll nightclub act and is a rough and ready riotous romp. "Bloody Bloody Andrew Jackson" is comprised of equal parts slapstick, smarts and sheer silliness and the polarization produced by the title is part of the point.

Andrew Jackson, our nation's seventh President, was, both in his day and in the annals of history, a man who provoked strong and contradictory opinions. "Old Hickory" was lauded as the hero of the battle of New Orleans and damned for his forced relocation of American Indian tribes. The political image of himself as a "man of the people" garnered him considerable acclaim as well as the nickname "King Mob." The musical takes a no-holds-barred look at his life and times but, especially as it presents this story as Vaudeville, that most indigenous and populist of American Performance styles, is ultimately most successful in depicting just how divided and contrary the collective American heart has always been.

Throughout the evening's many historical irreverence this is the point underscored again and again-think that we are a divided nation now? Guess what! We were as divided in our nation's infancy and what's more, we're still arguing over the same things! The show's rousing opening number happily declares "Populism Yea, Yea!" then spends the rest of the evening ask "Yeah, what then?" "People are confusing", a despairing President Jackson remarks, "you don't know what you want." Along his journey to the White House he encounters our preening and posturing political forefathers in Washington and campaigns both on "change" and the need to "take this country back". And the more things change the more our conflicts remain the same.

This take on the American political psyche has a lot akin to the way, say, that Jon Stewart or "The Colbert Report" satirizes politics today-the operating philosophy behind the work is the same, in that the play's authors Alex Timbers and Michael Friedman have taken the time to research and know all their facts about their subject before proceeding to make really goofy jokes about it. And while wackiness abounds the evening's comedic sketches provide an awful lot of factual knowledge about Jackson, his life and times-I've never learned so much while laughing so hard in my life! And amidst the considerable ribald and slapstick humor there are also jokes about Susan Sontag and Alexis de Tocqueville. Throw in the great rock songs into the mix and "Bloody Bloody Andrew Jackson" proves to be one heck of an enjoyable wild ride!

This sort of show, seemingly roughhewn on the surface, requires considerable finesse in order to pull the trick off and happily The Wilbury Group's ensemble has the requisite chops. The production takes place in the large and utilitarian warehouse space on the 2nd floor of the Butcher Block Mill in Providence. The audience is seated cabaret style on round tables at one end of the hall. The sets are minimal and there is a definite underground vibe to these proceedings especially when, at the start of the show, the entire cast marches menacingly through the audience like a band of marauders on a mission of conquest.

And what a cast they are! Joe Short, in the title role, is every inch an "Old Hickory." Lean, mean and thoroughly in control of the scene he saunters about the stage with a Rock Star's swagger. His charisma onstage is boyishness combined with a jagged cutting edge and it's a winning combination that makes you want to both cheer him in concert and vote for him come November.

The rest of the collective ensemble seems as vast as a young nation with lots of actors playing various roles, all are deft, delightful and delirium provoking as they juggle their many parts.
