Stand up to Bullying Scenario Cards

Jake has just started at a new school. Every lunchtime, a group of children won't let him sit at their table and tell him he has to sit somewhere else.

Stand up to Bullying Scenario Cards

William's class has made a pretend email address with William's name. He has then sent emails pretending to be them and has told people in William's class that he's them. The boy has printed these emails out and shown them with other children. William feels very sad but knows nobody will believe the truth.

The names of the children and schools are changed to protect their privacy. All names are fictional.
