Thirty Three Jonathan Franklin, 2011 On 12 October 2010 the world's attention was fixed on a remote copper mine in the Atacama desert in Chile. Final preparations were underway for a daring rescue to bring to an end the longest underground entrapment in human history. 33 Men Jonathan Franklin, 2011-02-14 Award winning journalist Jonathan Franklin chronicles the harrowing account of the 33 Chilean miners who were trapped underground for fourteen weeks in the fall of 2010. A resident of Chile since 1994, award winning investigative reporter Jonathan Franklin gained access to the miners, their families, rescuers, and government officials that other journalists could only dream of. He developed such a bond of trust with the miners that they described in great detail the dramatic first seventeen days of their confinement. Once the miners were rescued, Franklin interviewed virtually all of them at their homes, at his house, on horseback, and at the beach. The result is 33 Men, the most authoritative book on the Chilean mine disaster. Written with the author's renowned eye for detail, it captures the remarkable story of the miners who grasped the essence of the human spirit in order to survive their entrapment and the men and women who literally moved a mountain to set them free. The Thrilling Narrative of Edgell, Pearson, Gatwood and Savage, who Were Rescued, After Having Been Buried Alive Seven Hundred Feet Under Ground, for Fourteen Days and Thirteen Hours Without Food. In the Blue Rock Coal Mines Robert H. Gillmore, 2023-07-18 This harrowing true story recounts the experiences of three coal miners who survived a devastating mine cave-in in Ohio in 1888. Buried alive underground for over two weeks without food or water, the men's miraculous rescue and recovery became a major news story and testament to the perseverance of the human spirit. The details of the rescue and the details of their prayers and praise to God are what this book is about. It was by God's hand that the rescuers continued drilling until contact was made, day 17. It was by God's hand that a rare rainstorm occurred just a few days before the day 17 contact was made in this, the driest desert on earth. This created a flowering desert which gave the rescuers and family members on site hope. It was by God's hand that the NASA officials on site for the rescue could view the night sky in a place where astronomers come from all over the world due to the clarity of vision in this desolation. The Epilogue of this book details God's hand in the rescue of 18 miners trapped.

underground at the Quecreek Mine in Somerset Pennsylvania in July of 2002 9 of the men were trapped for 3 1 2 days At one point the water raised up to their necks until the massive pumping effort with massive machinery started to reduce the level It was by God s hand that one of the drilling companies at Quecreek sent two men and the drill to Chile to assist the rescue effort there
