“Equality” William N. Spencer, 2015-04-22 Equality is the state or quality of being the same in quality or degree evenly proportioned uniform in operation or effect In America today there are many people who pursue their dream of having each and every one of us equal in every way How naive how misguided how dreadfully misinformed and uneducated physiologically psychologically and anatomically Yet this is the prevailing culture in many of our political circles today Far too many laws and regulations are now written or being interpreted as some select groups of people being more equal or less equal than other non select groups of American citizens Perhaps our constitution and bill of rights need to be amended to satisfy this new meaning of equality
