Burma The Curse Of Independence:

Burma Shelby Tucker, 2001-09-20 An up to date and detailed eyewitness account of Burma's Civil War It is indispensable for understanding the travails of modern Burma Burma : The Curse Of Independence Shelby Tucker, 2002-06-01 A Nation's Ordeal With Violence The Burmese Civil War Began Twelve Weeks After Britain Granted Burma Independence In 1948 And Has Continued Ever Since Shelby Tucker Defines The War's Core Causes For Readers New To The Subject Or Baffled By Its Complexities And Shows How A Well Disciplined Army Of A Wealthy Colony Was Transformed Into A Ruthless Instrument Of An Impoverished Autocracy Underpinning Burma's Troubles He Argues Are Unresolved Ethnic Divisions Japanese Conquest Exacerbating These Divisions Burma's Herrenvolk Pretensions Political Rivalry Among Burmese Nationalists Preventing An Orderly Transfer Of Power Aung San's Assassination The Drugs Trade And The Personal Greed Of Burma's Military Rulers Tucker Draws On His Experience As A Trial Lawyer To Appraise Afresh The Murder Of Aung San And Argues That The Military Government Is The Leading Player In The Country's Flourishing Drugs Trade Media Emphasis On The Junta's Record Of Human Rights Abuse He Suggests Tends To Obscure A Strategic Interest In Ending The Trade Shared By All Major Powers Tucker Surveys Various Scholars' Assessments Of The Prospect Of The Peaceful Devolution Of Power To Civilian Rule And Concludes By Proposing Measures For Assisting Change In Burma India--Myanmar Relations Rajiv Bhatia, 2015-08-11 This book provides a comprehensive evaluation of India's multi-faceted relations with Myanmar It unravels the mysteries of the complex polity of Myanmar as it undergoes transition through democracy after long military rule Based on meticulous research and understanding the volume traces the trajectory of India Myanmar associations from ancient times to the present day and offers a fascinating story in the backdrop of the region's geopolitics An in-depth analysis of India Myanmar China Triangle brings out the strategic stakes involved It will be of great interest to researchers and scholars of international relations peace and conflict studies defence and strategic studies politics South and Southeast Asian studies as well as policy makers and political think tanks Ba mā' lvaṭ' lap' re'' kyan' cā Shelby Tucker, 2020 Fiery Dragons Sean Turnell, 2009 This book tells the story of Burma's financial system of its banks moneylenders and microfinanciers from colonial times to the present day It argues that Burma's financial system matters and that the careful study of this system can tell us something more general about Burma not least about how the richest country in Southeast Asia at the dawn of the twentieth century became the poorest at the dawn of the twenty-first While financial systems and institutions matter in all countries Turnell argues that they especially count in Burma as events in the financial and monetary sphere have been unusually spectacularly prominent in Burma's turbulent modern history The story of Burma's financial system and its players is one that has shaped the country It is a dramatic story of interest beyond the confines of economics and development studies General Ne Win Robert Taylor, 2015-05-25 Robert Taylor one of the most prominent scholars in Myanmar studies has written an illuminating study of Ne Win the most enigmatic and controversial of the first generation of post-independence

Southeast Asian leaders and how he steered a then largely unknown country Burma now Myanmar through the Cold War years This book by perhaps the only foreign political analyst to live in Burma under Ne Win is a significant contribution to the historiography of Myanmar and its unnoticed role in the Cold War in Asia Associate Professor Ang Cheng Guan Head of Graduate Studies S Rajaratnam School of International Studies Nanyang Technological University Singapore This book fills a major gap in the literature on Myanmar by providing the first scholarly account of the life of General Ne Win its enigmatic ruler for over 25 years It will be of interest not only to professional Myanmar watchers who have long awaited a detailed and comprehensive study of this important historical figure but to anyone who wants to learn more about this troubled Southeast Asian country where Ne Win s legacy is still being felt today Andrew Selth Adjunct Associate Professor Griffith Asia Institute The Colonel Ne Win of World War II and General Ne Win of post independent Myanmar was not the same as Chairman Ne Win of the BSPP Nor was the context of those days similar to the context by which he is normally judged today The present work and Taylor s scholarship in general is acutely aware of such anachronistic projections backward made to commensurate with certain desired academic and political consequences Taylor examines Ne Win s life and career in the context of when it occurred This book returns Ne Win to the period to which he belonged Michael Aung Thwin Professor of South East Asian History University of Hawaii It is difficult to imagine that this study of Ne Win the dominant figure in the politics of Burma through most of the second half of the twentieth century will ever be surpassed Immensely detailed insightful and impressively understanding this is an outstanding work of scholarship Ian Brown Emeritus Professor of the Economic History of South East Asia School of Oriental and African Studies London

Fired Clay in Four Porcelain Clusters Tai Wei Lim, 2014-09-05 Fired Clay in Four Porcelain Clusters examines how energy use in the ceramics making industry has evolved as a result of technological advancements and changing social norms and ideas in environmental conservation Three main research themes are highlighted First the book examines how the evolving use of energy fuels has impacted the developmental history of the ceramics making industry especially with regard to productive output The second theme focuses on energy use by networks of specialists and technicians in ceramics making artistic clusters and how ceramicist communities in the world organize themselves institutionally to maximize resource sharing Third at a cognitive level the volume studies changes in production and design environmental thinking energy use and aesthetic trends among ceramicists and consumers The four cities or towns of Arita Hong Kong Jingdezhen and Yingge are the settings for this research

Turmoil in Burma David I. Steinberg, 2006 Few states in the contemporary world present the complexities that characterize Burma Myanmar at present On the one hand it has been under military rule for some forty four years at this point with many traditional factors in operation an high degree of authoritarianism the dominance of personalization over institutions powerful centrism but with a progressive weakening as the distance from the center lengthens and the importance of religion as a source of identity Those who govern Myanmar have given ample indication in recent times of a desire to interact with diverse international bilateral and multilateral operations Yet Burma Myanmar nationalism has contained a xenophobic quality emphasized on occasion a proclivity that is more conducive to isolation than to cooperation In this context the movement of the capitol from Rangoon to Pyinmana in the interior while proclaimed as a move to provide easier access to all parts of Myanmar raises questions Moreover as was demonstrated recently in the face of strong opposition Myanmar was prepared to give up its scheduled chairmanship of ASEAN rather than to change its domestic political policies Under the circumstances it is fortunate to have a highly regarded scholar who has spent many years undertaking in depth studies of Burma Myanmar as well as other parts of East Asia with a history of friendships and research in the region provide us with an up to date analysis David Steinberg presents a broad picture of the complex scene commencing with a presentation of key theoretical and historical considerations and proceeding to an analysis of various specifics relating to the current Burma Myanmar society and state His analysis is comprehensive and balanced taking into account the many complexities and uncertainties of this troubled state We are indeed fortunate to have this work available from the Foreword by Robert A Scalapino The Virginia Review of Asian Studies ,1999 India-Myanmar Relations, 1886-1948 Swapna Bhattacharya,2007 The Burmanization of Myanmar's Muslims Jean A.
