Korea, Are You at Peace? J.A.V. Simson, 2013-08-12 Is there hope for peace on the Korean peninsula These deeply personal stories of two Western women reveal the almost unimaginable transformation of Korea from a culturally and politically united peninsula at the end of the nineteenth century into today's dangerously divided land These two women's experiences bracket the twentieth century a dark time in Korean history when the peninsula was occupied by Japan divided into North and South and wracked by internal war becoming an unwilling pawn of Cold War superpowers Despite everything South Korea has emerged as an international economic success story whereas North Korea has become a totalitarian ideological nightmare in which leaders spew the rhetoric of aggression and develop nuclear weapons What would it take to heal this political schizophrenia that endangers our entire world

Lucid Agents Sam Luckey, 2013-08-30 Sam served four overseas tours in the U S Army He served in the Military Police during two tours of South Korea and one tour in West Germany Once he graduated U S Army CID school he returned to West Germany as a Special Agent Courtesy of the US Army he also served stateside assignments in Arizona Texas Alabama and Georgia Sam observed the very best and the very worst of the US Military While in Frankfurt West Germany Sam was Team Chief of the most productive Narcotics Investigation Drug Suppression Team in Europe However when he was told that he would be taking over more more Narcotics Investigations as a CID Team Chief he declined and left the US Army with numerous medals and awards Sam no longer believed our current War on Drugs paradigm was productive Our Drug War mentality prevents Law Enforcement from doing real Harm Reduction and causes more damage and harm than the actual illegal drug use
