needs to become proactive participants in business development and entrepreneurship instruction Libraries are no longer only repositories of books but information rich sources of business and economic data The case studies presented within this book highlight a variety of examples on entrepreneurship education and local economic development The examples presented serve as a catalyst for further entrepreneurial endeavours and highlight the growing need for effective value added support in finding business information Business librarians play a critical role in promoting the effective use of business information and in providing significant value added services within university and community settings This book was published as a special double issue of the Journal of Business Finance Librarianship

Leading Collaborative Architectural Practice Erin Carraher, Ryan E. Smith, 2017-03-27 The groundbreaking guide to modern leadership in architectural practice Leading Collaborative Architectural Practice is the leadership handbook for today's design and construction professionals Endorsed by the American Institute of Architects this book describes the collaborative approach to leadership that is becoming increasingly prevalent in modern practice gone are the days of authoritative star architects today's practice is a brand and requires the full input of every member of the team This book builds off of a two year AIA research project to provide a blueprint for effective leadership the ability awareness and commitment to lead project teams who work together to accomplish the project's goals Both group and individual hands on exercises help facilitate implementation and extensive case studies show how these techniques have helped real world firms build exemplary success through collaborative teamwork and leadership Highly illustrated and accessible this approach is presented from the practicing architect's point of view but the universal principles and time tested methods also provide clear guidance for owners contractors engineers project managers and students Build a culture of collaboration commitment and interpersonal awareness Adopt effective leadership techniques at the team project or practice level Handle conflict and resolve communication issues using tested approaches Learn how real world projects use effective leadership to drive success The last decade has seen a sea change in architectural leadership New practices no longer adopt the name and identity of a single person but create their own identity that represents the collaborative work of the entire group Shifts in technology and changing workplace norms have made top down management structures irrelevant so what does it now mean to lead Forefront presents effective contemporary leadership in the architectural practice and real world guidance on everyday implementation
