Economy Marvin T. Brown,2010-04-01 When a handful of people thrive while whole industries implode and millions suffer it is clear that something is wrong with our economy The wealth of the few is disconnected from the misery of the many In Civilizing the Economy Marvin Brown traces the origin of this economics of dissociation to early capitalism showing how this is illustrated in Adam Smith s denial of the central role of slavery in wealth creation In place of the Smithian economics of property Brown proposes that we turn to the original meaning of economics as household management He presents a new framework for the global economy that reframes its purpose as the making of provisions instead of the accumulation of property This bold new vision establishes the civic sphere as the platform for organizing an inclusive economy and as a way to move toward a more just and sustainable world Third Sector Research Rupert Taylor,2010-03-02 To mark the 20th Anniversary of Voluntas International Journal of Voluntary and Nonprofit Organizations the editor has compiled a comprehensive overview of contemporary debates in third sector scholarship comprised of all original research by leaders in the field The volume will offer a critical review of the central and innovative themes that have come to form the core of third sector debate and research with an international focus The first global compendium of third sector research this volume provides a international multi disciplinary and state of the art overview of the field The contributions not only examine and review the existing scholarship but introduce new perspectives and thinking on the third sector especially in terms of future implications around the world Topics covered include History and Development of the Field New Trends in Volunteering and Philanthropy Volunteering and Participation in Developing Countries Leadership and Governance Corporate Responsibility Social Capital Global Civil Society This seminal volume provides a broad and comprehensive look at the field of Third Sector Research of primary interest to researchers in political science sociology development studies and nonprofit leadership programs
