France Since The Second World War:

France Since the Second World War Tyler Edward Stovall, 2002 Asking how France has managed to preserve and shape her sense of national identity in the intervening years since the war Professor Stovall explores the French postwar recovery and the 30 years of prosperity that followed

France Since 1945 Robert Gildea, 1996 The last fifty years have seen immense challenges for the French constructing a new European order building a modern economy searching for a stable political system It has also been a time of anxiety and doubt The French have had to come to terms with the legacy of the German Occupation the political and social implications of the influx of foreign immigrants the destruction of traditional rural life and the threat of Anglo American culture to French language and civilization Robert Gildea s account examines French politics society and culture as well as France s role in the world from 1945 to 1995 He looks at France s attempt to recover national greatness after the Second World War its attempt to deal with the fear of German resurgence by building the European Community the Algerian war and the later development of a neo colonialism to preserve its influence in Africa and the Pacific He traces the career of General de Gaulle the revolution of 1968 and the trend towards both political consensus and political disillusionment He also examines the rise and fall of the French intellectual the changing cultural policy of the state and the threat of feminism regionalism and multiculturalism to the ideal of the One and Indivisible Republic

Colonial Culture in France since the Revolution Pascal Blanchard, Sandrine Lemaire, Nicolas Bancel, Dominic Thomas, 2013-12-02 This landmark collection by an international group of scholars and public intellectuals represents a major reassessment of French colonial culture and how it continues to inform thinking about history memory and identity This reexamination of French colonial culture provides the basis for a revised understanding of its cultural political and social legacy and its lasting impact on postcolonial immigration the treatment of ethnic minorities and national identity

France Since 1800 D. L. L. Parry, Pierre Girard (professor of contemporary history.), 2002 In this concise history of France since 1815 David Parry and Pierre Girard examine distinctive features of contemporary France tracing their origins and investigating their continuities and transformations Each chapter focuses on a particular chronological period beginning by setting the scene in terms of political events the narrative then broadens out to consider the wider issues of society economics religion the arts gender relations and France s relationship with Europe and with the rest of the world This clearly written accessible text will appeal to undergraduates studying French history politics and culture as well as the general reader

Generations Z in Europe Christian Scholz, Anne Rennig, 2019-09-30 Generations Z in Europe brings together differing geographic perspectives from a range of researchers to present a fascinating picture of the contemporary reality for Gen Z workers from nine European countries The findings will help readers understand the diversity of issues and commonalities for this new part of the global workforce

Contemporary France Jill Forbes, Nicholas LAST KNOWN ADDRESS Hewlett, Francois Nectoux, 2014-01-21 In one stimulating source this successful text provides a rigorous analysis of the political economic and social developments in post war France The analysis is supported by specially selected French language texts and exercises This text is suitable for undergraduate students of French especially within a languages social science or business course and for courses in French Studies and European Studies     France During World War II Thomas Rodney Christofferson, Michael Scott Christofferson, 2006 This title provides an introduction to almost every aspect of the French experience during World War II by integrating political diplomatic military social cultural and economic history It chronicles the battles and campaigns that stained French soil with blood     The Journal of Education Thomas Williams Bicknell, Albert Edward Winship, Anson Wood Belding, 1929     Calendar of the University of Sydney University of Sydney, 1975     The Log , 1952     France and the United States Frank Costigliola, 1992 France more than any other Western ally has consistently tried to maintain its autonomy from U S foreign policy by insisting on a distinctively French global view and agenda Whether interpreted as proud independence or petty intransigence such French assertiveness has often embittered relations between the two nations and has sparked exasperation and resentment on both sides In France and the United States the Cold Alliance since World War II Frank Costigliola examines the cultural and psychological aspects of postwar relations between the United States and its oldest ally and demonstrates the way in which these less tangible factors have colored the strategic political and economic ties between the two nations This is the first major study of the two countries to look closely at the language of their diplomatic and cultural relations and in particular at the ways in which gendered metaphors and allusions subtly affect attitudes and policies The author also breaks new ground by considering how the end of the Cold War the unification of Germany the Persian Gulf War the changing role of NATO and the rise of the European Community have affected U S relations with France and with Western Europe as a whole This timely and lively account sheds light on the political and personal clashes that de Gaulle had with Roosevelt and Johnson and that Mitterrand has had with Reagan and Bush The author integrates into his political analysis the fascinating stories of the contested introduction into France of Coca Cola McDonald s Hollywood films and Euro Disneyland the controversial adoption of French theories by some American intellectuals the quarrel over AIDS and the building of the I M Pei Pyramid at the Louvre Costigliola s richly detailed account will be an important text for scholars and students of the postwar histories of the United States France and Western Europe     Mandates, Dependencies and Trusteeship Hessel Duncan Hall, 1972     The Literary Digest Edward Jewitt Wheeler, Isaac Kaufman Funk, William Seaver Woods, Arthur Stimson Draper, Wilfred John Funk, 1917     Town Journal , 1923     New England Journal of Education Thomas Williams Bicknell, Albert Edward Winship, Anson Wood Belding, 1929     The American Review of Reviews Albert Shaw, 1925     American Monthly Review of Reviews Albert Shaw, 1899     Chemical & Metallurgical Engineering Eugene Franz Roeber, Howard Coon Parmelee, 1922     Tercentenary History of Maryland Matthew Page Andrews, 1925     The World's Economic Dilemma Ernest Minor Patterson, 1930
