Improving the Regulatory Review Process: Assessing Performance and Setting Targets N. McAuslane, S.R. Walker, 2012-12-06 At a time when it is becoming usual for medicines to be developed for a global market and pharmaceutical companies are endeavouring to expedite the drug development process Regulatory Authorities are concentrating on improving their efficiency and effectiveness Therefore it is not surprising that questions are being asked as to how performance might be measured and compared between different authorities who are now often in receipt of dossiers that have been submitted to several agencies at the same time Issues such as what target should be set for the review of new medicines and how can quality be assured are now considered to be of critical importance The twelfth CMR International Workshop held in January 1997 provided the opportunity for Regulatory Authority and industry personnel from Europe North America Australia and Japan to openly discuss experiences and exchange views on how to improve the review process The proceedings of this meeting provide a comprehensive overview of the current review process in different countries and the need for performance measures and targets This volume summarises the many suggestions that were debated at the Workshop and includes chapters on measuring performance and on the integration of quality into the review process

Assessing Performance of Banks in India Fifty Years After Nationalization Atanu Sengupta, Sanjoy De, 2020-04-21 This book assesses the performance of banks in India over the past several decades and discusses their current status after fifty years of nationalization The performance of different categories of banks is evaluated by employing both the traditional ratio analysis and more sophisticated efficiency techniques The book also explores the market conditions under which Indian banks operate Going beyond a formal banking study the book also investigates the causes of the widespread presence of informal credit in parallel to its formal banking counterpart This approach makes it more comprehensive unique and closer to the real world After 50 years of nationalization India's banking sector is at a crossroads given the huge and unabated non performing assets and talks of consolidation This book encompassing both the formal and the predominantly trust based informal credit system provides essential insights for bankers and policymakers which will be invaluable in their endeavours to implement meaningful changes It may also spark new research in the fields of banking performance and efficiency analysis Lastly the book not only has significant implications for students of economics banking finance and management but also offers an important resource to support training courses for banking personnel in India Assessing Competence in Professional Performance across Disciplines and Professions Paul F.

Wimmers, Marcia Mentkowski, 2016-04-19 This book examines the challenges of cross professional comparisons and proposes new forms of performance assessment to be used in professions education It addresses how complex issues are learned and assessed across and within different disciplines and professions in order to move the process of performance assessment for learning to the next level In order to be better equipped to cope with increasing complexity change and diversity in professional education and performance assessment administrators and educators will engage in crucial systems thinking The main question discussed by the book is how the required competence in the performance of students can be assessed during their professional education at both undergraduate and graduate levels To answer this question the book identifies unresolved issues and clarifies conceptual elements for performance assessment It reviews the development of constructs that cross disciplines and professions such as critical thinking clinical reasoning and problem solving It discusses what it means to instruct and assess students within their own domain of study and across various roles in multiple contexts but also what it means to instruct and assess students across domains of study in order to judge integration and transfer of learning outcomes Finally the book examines what it takes for administrators and educators to develop competence in assessment such as reliably judging student work in relation to criteria from multiple sources the co editors of this volume Marcia Mentkowski and Paul F Wimmers are associated with two institutions whose characters are so intimately associated with the insight that assessment must be integrated with curriculum and instructional program if it is to become a powerful influence on the educational process Lee Shulman Stanford University Performance Assessment for Field Sports Christopher Carling, Tom Reilly, A.
