Advances in Environment, Behavior, and Design Erwin H. Zube, Gary T. Moore, 2014-05-14 Advances in Environment, Behavior, and Design Erwin H. Zube, Gary T. Moore, 1991-01-31 This third volume in Advances in Environment Behavior and Design follows the conceptual framework adopted in the previous two volumes see the Preface to Volume 1 1987 It is organized into five sections advances in theory advances in place user group and sociobehavioral research and advances in research utilization The authors of this volume represent a wide spectrum of the multi disciplinary environment behavior and design field including architecture environmental psychology facility management geography human factors sociology and urban design The volume offers international perspectives from North America Carole Despres from Canada several authors from the U S Europe Martin Krampen from Germany Martin Symes from England and New Zealand David Kernohan More so than any of the previous volumes they are drawn from both academia and professional practice While there continues to be a continuity in format in the series we are actively exploring new directions that are on the cutting edges of the field and bode well for a more integrated future This volume will further develop the themes of design and professional practice to complement the earlier emphases on theory research and methods Advances in Environment, Behavior and Design Erwin H. Zube, Gary T. Moore, 2013-11-11 This second volume in the Advances in Environment Behavior and Design series follows the pattern of Volume 1 It is organized into six sections user group research consisting of advances in theory place research sociobehavioral research research and design methods and research utilization The authors of the chapters in this volume represent a range of disciplines including architecture geography psychology social ecology and urban planning They also offer international perspectives Tommy Garling from Sweden Graeme Hardie from South Africa recently relocated to North Carolina Gerhard Kaminski from the Federal Republic of Germany and Roderick Lawrence from Switzerland formerly from Australia Although most chapters address topics or issues that are likely to be familiar to readers environmental perception and cognition facility programming and environmental evaluation four chapters address what the editors perceive to be new topics for environment behavior and design research Herbert Schroeder reports on advances in research on urban forestry For most of us the term forest probably conjures up visions of dense woodlands in rural or wild settings Nevertheless in many parts of the country urban areas have higher densities of tree coverage than can be found in surrounding rural landscapes Schroeder reviews research that addresses the perceived and actual benefits and costs associated with these urban forests Advances in Environment, Behavior, and Design Erwin H. Zube, Gary T. Moore, 1991 This third volume in Advances in Environment Behavior and Design follows the conceptual framework adopted in the previous two volumes see the Preface to Volume 1 1987 It is organized into five sections advances in theory advances in place user group and sociobehavioral research and advances in research utilization The authors of this volume represent a wide spectrum of the multi disciplinary environment behavior and design field including architecture environmental psychology facility management geography human factors sociology and urban design The volume offers international perspectives from North America Carole Despres from Canada several authors from the U S Europe Martin Krampen from Germany Martin Symes from England and New Zealand David Kernohan More so than any of the previous volumes they are drawn from both academia and professional practice While there continues to be a continuity in format in the series we are actively exploring new directions that are on the cutting edges of the field and bode well for a more integrated future This volume will further develop the themes of design and professional practice to complement the earlier emphases on theory research and methods Advances in Environment, Behavior, and Design Ervin H.
