Europe's diverse and fascinating mazes     Advances in Contemplative Science Javier Garcia-Campayo, Roberto Aristegui, Jesus Montero-Marin, 2025-02-03 Over the last twenty years a great amount of research has been conducted in the field of Contemplative Science CS considered a crossroads between contemplative spiritual traditions and neuroscience. This is a relatively heterogeneous discipline that includes quite different techniques: mindfulness, compassion, body, mind, techniques, etc. Distinct approaches from secular to religious traditions: Buddhism, Vedanta, shamanism, monotheistic religions, etc. and different sets of terminology that frequently require clarification. One of the more challenging features of CS is its methodology given the difficulty involved in assessing its introspection dimension. The consequence of all these aspects is that CS has become one of the newest and most interesting fields of research in psychology     Walking a Sacred Path

Lauren Artress, 1996-06-01 Lauren Artress reintroduces the ancient labyrinth, a walking meditation that transcends the limits of still meditation and shows us the possibilities it brings for renewal and change. Walking the Labyrinth has reemerged today as a metaphor for the spiritual journey and a powerful tool for transformation. This walking meditation is an archetype, a mystical ritual found in all religious traditions. It quiets the mind and opens the soul. Walking a Sacred Path explores the historical origins of this divine imprint and shares the discoveries of modern day seekers. It shows us the potential of the Labyrinth to inspire change and renewal and serves as a guide to help us develop the higher level of human awareness we need to survive in the twenty first century     The Way of the Labyrinth Helen Curry, 2000-10-01 The first time Helen Curry walked a labyrinth she was moved to tears and then was filled with peace and possibilities. Here she shares her years of experience with labyrinth meditation and shows how others can find serenity and guidance by adopting this increasingly popular practice. Unlike mazes which force choices and can create fear and confusion, labyrinths are designed to embrace and guide individuals through a calming meditative walk on a single circular path. The Way of the Labyrinth includes meditations, prayers, questions for enhancing labyrinth walks, guidelines for ceremonies, instructions for finger meditations, and extensive resources. This enchanting, practical and exquisitely packaged guide helps both novice and experienced readers enjoy the benefits of labyrinth meditation from problem solving to stress reduction to personal transformation. Includes a foreword by Jean Houston, the renowned author and leader in the field of humanistic psychology, who is considered the grandmother of the current labyrinth revival

Finding Our Way John Michael Helms, 2006-06 Through the art of story and the discipline of reflection, Finding Our Way helps each reader discover the path to serenity through self discovery and the contemplation of God's timeless truths in an ever changing world     Dr. Frey's lectures on the diseases of the labyrinth Dr. Frey, 1911

Sharp,2009 Was God being ironic in commanding Eve not to eat fruit from the tree of wisdom Carolyn J Sharp suggests that many stories in the Hebrew Scriptures may be ironically intended Deftly interweaving literary theory and exegesis Sharp illuminates the power of the unspoken in a wide variety of texts from the Pentateuch the Prophets and the Writings She argues that reading with irony in mind creates a charged and open rhetorical space in the texts that allows character narration and authorial voice to develop in unexpected ways Main themes explored here include the ironizing of foreign rulers the prostitute as icon of the ironic gaze indeterminacy and dramatic irony in prophetic performance and irony in ancient Israel s wisdom traditions Sharp devotes special attention to how irony destabilizes dominant ways in which the Bible is read today especially when it touches on questions of conflict gender and the Other
