Performance as Research Annette Arlander, Bruce Barton, Melanie Dreyer-Lude, Ben Spatz, 2017-12-06 Performance as Research PAR is characterised by an extraordinary elasticity and interdisciplinary drive Performance as Research Knowledge Methods Impact celebrates this energy bringing together chapters from a wide range of disciplines and eight different countries This volume focuses explicitly on three critical often contentious themes that run through much discussion of PaR as a discipline Knowledge the areas and manners in which performance can generate knowledge Methods methods and methodologies for approaching performance as research Impact a broad understanding of the impact of this form of research These themes are framed by four essays from the book's editors contextualising their interrelated conversations teasing out common threads and exploring the new questions that the contributions pose to the field of performance As both an intervention into and extension of current debates this is a vital collection for any reader concerned with the value and legitimacy of performance as research Selected Letters of Sir J. G. Frazer Robert Ackerman, 2005-09-29 This is a fully annotated edition of selected letters by and in some cases to Sir J G Frazer 1854 1941 the eminent anthropologist classicist and historian of religion Frazer was read by virtually everyone working in those fields in the first third of the twentieth century His great work The Golden Bough offered a grand vision of humanity's mental and spiritual evolution from vain attempts to compel the gods to do our bidding which Frazer called magic through equally vain attempts to propitiate the gods through prayer and sacrifice his characterization of religion to rationality and science His richly varied correspondence with prominent figures such as Edmund Gosse A E Housman and Bronislaw Malinowski among others offers an unparalleled insight into British intellectual life of the time and also throws light upon the composition of The Golden Bough itself
