Apec And The Construction Of Pacific Rim Regionalism Cambridge Asia Pacific Studies:

APEC and the Construction of Pacific Rim Regionalism John Ravenhill, 2001 The Asia Pacific Economic Cooperation APEC grouping is the first comprehensive economic arrangement to link countries from around the Pacific Rim Since its establishment in 1989 APEC has graduated from a ministerial level gathering of nine countries to an institution that stages annual summits has a permanent secretariat and whose twenty one members have committed themselves to establishing free trade in the region A decade after its foundation however members have been increasingly frustrated with the grouping's progress In this timely book John Ravenhill examines the reasons for APEC's establishment its evolution and the causes of its failures His conclusions address central questions in international relations about international collaboration and regionalism The book will interest all those concerned with broader questions about regional economic and political cooperation

Interregionalism and the Americas Andreas Falke, Gian Luca Gardini, Simon Koschut, 2018-10-15 This book addresses the question of how the American continent engages with various forms of interregionalism including how different regions within the Americas deal with other regions of the world as well as how they relate among themselves The presence of different political economic and cultural sub regions within the Americas makes the continent a perfect setting to explore differences and commonalities in the western hemisphere's relationship with other regions across the globe Interregionalism and the Americas tackles three unifying questions First what type and understanding of interregionalism characterize the Americas way to interregionalism if any Second is summitry ultimately the major visible feature of interregionalism in the Americas and beyond Third is there anything typical or characteristic in the way in which the Americas engage with interregionalism This book contributes both to the theoretical debates about interregionalism and to the empirical understanding of the phenomenon and makes a compelling case to strengthen the inter American system and to advance a trilateral interregionalism mechanism between North America Latin America and Europe to stand up for their common values norms and preferred international order

China's Multilateral Co-operation in Asia and the Pacific

Chien-peng Chung, 2010-06-24 Explores the meaning scope and repercussion in the drive that a rising China has for institutionalizing multilateral cooperative processes in the Asia Pacific region the extent to which its actions are motivated by concerns of politics economics or security and the obstacles it faces for so doing

Asia's Regional Architecture Andrew Yeo, 2019-04-02 During the Cold War the U S built a series of alliances with Asian nations to erect a bulwark against the spread of communism and provide security to the region Despite pressure to end bilateral alliances in the post Cold War world they persist to this day even as new multilateral institutions have sprung up around them The resulting architecture may aggravate rivalries as the U S China and others compete for influence However Andrew Yeo demonstrates how Asia's complex array of bilateral and multilateral agreements may ultimately bring greater stability and order to a region fraught with underlying tensions Asia's Regional Architecture transcends traditional international relations models It investigates change and continuity in Asia through the lens of historical institutionalism Refuting claims regarding the demise of the liberal international order Yeo reveals how overlapping institutions can promote regional governance and reduce uncertainty in a global context In addition to considering established institutions such as the Association of Southeast Asian Nations and the Asia Pacific Economic Cooperation he discusses newer regional arrangements including the East Asia Summit Trans Pacific Partnership and the Belt and Road Initiative This book has important implications for how policymakers think about institutional design and regionalism in Asia and beyond

Multilateral Asian Security Architecture See Seng Tan, 2015-07-16 This book provides a comparative assessment of the material and ideational contributions of five countries to the regional architecture of post Cold War Asia In contrast to the usual emphasis placed on the role and centrality of the Association of Southeast Asian Nations ASEAN in Asia's multilateral architecture and its component institutions this book argues that the four non ASEAN countries of interest here 3 4 Australia Japan China and the United States 3 4 and Indonesia have played and continue to play an influential part in determining the shape and substance of Asian multilateralism from its pre inception to the present The work does not contend that existing scholarship overstates ASEAN's significance to the successes and failures of Asia's multilateral enterprise Rather it claims that the impact of non ASEAN stakeholders in innovating multilateral architecture in Asia has been understated Whether ASEAN has fared well or poorly as a custodian of Asia's regional architecture the fact remains that the countries considered here notwithstanding their present discontent over the state of that architecture are key to understanding the evolution of Asian multilateralism This book will be of much interest to students of Asian politics international organisations security studies and IR more generally

Routledge Handbook of Asian Regionalism Mark Beeson, Richard Stubbs, 2012-03-15 The Routledge Handbook of Asian Regionalism is a definitive introduction to and analysis of the development of regionalism in Asia including coverage of East Asia Southeast Asia and South Asia The contributors engage in a comprehensive exploration of what is arguably the most dynamic and important region in the world Significantly this volume addresses the multiple manifestations of regionalism in Asia and is consequently organised thematically under the headings of conceptualizing the region economic issues political issues strategic issues regional organizations As such the Handbook presents some of the key elements of the competing interpretations of this important and highly contested topic giving the reader a chance to evaluate not just where Asian regionalism is going but also how the scholarship on Asian regionalism is analysing these trends and events This book will be an indispensable resource for students and scholars of Asian politics international relations and regionalism

International Relations of East Asia Xiaoming Huang, 2019-12-28 East Asia's rapidly changing role in international security the global economy development and global governance are expertly accounted for in this much needed state of the art text Xiaoming Huang offers an engaging and informed account of the key concepts issues and actors working in this area Ranging from the region's history to culture and a comparative assessment of the region's states this text is informed throughout by a compelling theoretical framework In so doing it unpicks the often complex relationships both at the domestic level and externally Only with this understanding is it possible to make sense of the region s complex relationships both internally and externally Structured around key concepts in international relations of war and peace economic development and increased contemporary security threats this text offers an empirically rich engaging account of the changing fortunes of East Asia

The Construction of Regional Institutions in the Asia-Pacific and East Asia Yasumasa Komori,2007 The Battle for Asia Mark T. Berger,2004 This book is a history of the Asian region from 1945 to the present day which delineates the various ideological battles over Asia s development Macro- and Micro-regionalism in the Historical Geography of the Pacific Rim Dianne Elizabeth Meredith,2003

Journal of East Asian Studies ,2007 Regionalism and Multilateralism Amitav Acharya,2003 These essays written between 1990 and 2000 cover the most significant phase of multilateral institution building in the Asia Pacific region They deal with the emergence of regionalism in Southeast Asia ASEAN s transition to the post Cold War era the role of the ASEAN Regional Forum the engagement of China the changing relationship between sovereignty and regionalism and prospects for the regional institutions such as ASEAN APEC and the ARF after the Asian economic crisis The essays address the most challenging issues of regional order and articulate an institutionalist understanding of international relations in the region This updated second edition includes four new chapters and two revised chapters Competitive Regionalism Mireya Solís,Barbara Stallings,Saori N. Katada,2009-07-08 Despite abundant scepticism about their economic benefits Free Trade Agreements FTAs have proliferated at a rapid pace Policy diffusion models explain how different sets of preferential trade agreements are interconnected and establish under what conditions FTAs can work for or against the emergence of coherent regional blocs Regionalism in Asia See Seng Tan,2009 Especially since the Cold War research relating to international relations in Asia has grown exponentially and to make sense of what is now a vast and unwieldy corpus of literature this collection from the Critical Issues in Modern Politics series brings together the best and most influential work in the field

Regionalism in the New Asia-Pacific Order Joseph A. Camilleri,2003 Regionalism in the Asia Pacific is a complex and rapidly evolving phenomenon This volume explores the relationship between globalization and regionalization between states markets and civil society and between US hegemony and Asian aspirations Asia-Pacific Economic Co-operation: APEC: its record and achievements Peter Drysdale,Takashi Terada,2007 Peace and Security in the Asia-Pacific Sorpong Peou,2010-04-15 This book is about peace and security in the Asia Pacific it critically reviews various perspectives on peace and security in the region and seeks to determine whether any of them has now emerged as the winner in the struggle for hegemony If none has it may be wise for us to aim at building innovative theories based on the strengths of existing theories As shall be discussed in this introduction the study of peace and security is not only about the actual use or threat of force and the prevention of war but also about the causes consequences and control of insecurity said to be rooted in various sources of threat to humans their values their agencies and their environment as well as about possible cures Security as a concept is essentially contested and has become increasingly contestable This conceptual challenge has the advantage of opening space for debate but this book will make the case that in the end theoretical eclecticism offers the most promising perspective for the emerging policy agenda of building a regional security community during the 21st century Latin America and East Asia, Attempts at Diversification Jörg Faust, Manfred Mols, Wön-ho Kim, 2005 Many efforts have been spend on investigating increasing interdependence within the Pacific Rim However the dynamic development of relations between Latin America und East Asia in the last two decades have not attracted much academic attention In order to fill this gap the authors of this volume present one of the first encompassing analysis of political and economic relations between Latin America and East Asia Global Politics of Regionalism Mary Farrell, Bjorn Hettne, Luk Langenhove, 2005-08-20 Textbook on regionalism and its role in a global marketplace ideal for students of IR and globalisation Trading Arrangements in the Pacific Rim Paul J. Davidson, 2008
