Global Voices on Biblical Equality Aida Besancon Spencer, William David Spencer, Mimi Haddad, 2008-08-18 Global Voices on Biblical Equality is a fresh look at the contextualizing of gender equality throughout the world. Biblical equality is a burgeoning global reform movement led by scholars and leaders not only in North America but also on every continental landmass in the world. What inroads is biblical equality making around the globe? What is its appeal? What still needs reform? How is biblical equality transforming each culture? In this book, female and male writers who are ethnically part of every continent explore the contextual challenges, successes, and adaptations of engaging the biblical text on gender and ministry. The contributors write on Asia, India, and China, and Asian America, Korean America. They treat Africa, Zimbabwe, and African America. Writers address Indigenous America, Native America, and Latin America, Hispanic America, and Brazilian America. Writers also discuss Western Europe, Australia, and North America. The editors of this volume are Aida Besancon Spencer, William David Spencer, and Mimi Haddad. Other contributors include Ellen Alexander, Beulah Wood, Cecilia Yau, Matthew D. Kim, Constantine M. Murefu, Darin Vincent, Poullard, Sandra Gatlin, Whitley, Awilda Gonzalez, Tejera, John Runyon, Eliana Marques, Runyon, Elke Werner, Roland Werner, Kevin Giles, and Roberta Hestenes.

Women and Religion in Zimbabwe Ezra Chitando, Kudzai Biri, Sophia Chirongoma, 2022-07-07 The chapters in this volume foreground the ambivalent role of religion and culture when it comes to African women's health and well-being. Reflecting on the three major religions in Africa—i.e., African Indigenous Religions, Christianity, and Islam—the authors illustrate how religious beliefs and practices can either enhance or hinder women's holistic progress and development. With a specific focus on Zimbabwean women's experiences of religion and culture, the volume discusses how African Indigenous Religions, Christianity, and Islam tend to privilege men and understate the value of women in Africa. Adopting diverse theological, ideological, and political positions, contributors to this volume restate the fact that the key teachings of different religions, often suppressed due to patriarchal influences, are a potent resource in the quest for gender justice. In sync with the goals for gender justice and women empowerment envisioned in the United Nations Agenda 2030 and Africa Agenda 2063, the contributors advocate for gender-inclusive and life-enhancing interpretations of religious and cultural traditions in Africa.

Regime, Religion and the Consolidation of Zanu-PFism in Zimbabwe Bekithemba Dube, 2023-12-14 This collection focuses on the role of religious leaders and religious institutions in supporting or resisting the democratization process in Zimbabwe. It scrutinizes the actions of religious leaders such as Andrew Wutawunashe and Jeremiah Mutendi, who were prominent in the political scene and participated as enablers of the undemocratic regime. The contributors to this volume employ a variety of methodological approaches to understand the operational dilemma of the second republic under Emmerson Dambudzo Mnangagwa commonly referred to as Zanupfism It is an empirical study to determine the impact of religious leaders as regime enablers and assess the effects of such an approach in terms of social development democracy and social transformation as espoused in the rise of the second republic In order to balance the narrative the book highlights and offers critique of religious leaders and institutes who are the resisters of the regime It specifically explores the Zimbabwe Catholic Bishops Conference Evangelical Fellowship of Zimbabwe Zimbabwe Council of Churches Talent Chiwenga and Shingi Munyeza This is a critical study of decoloniality in a religious context that documents characters such as Shingi Mayeza Bishop Mutendi Mapostori who seldomly appear in scholarship despite their great impact either positive or negative on the lives of the people of Zimbabwe

Religion, Politics, Gender and Sexuality in Zimbabwe Francis Machingura, 2024-11-27 This book examines the interplay between religion politics gender and sexuality in Zimbabwe which constitute the core of human life and behavior More specifically the book looks at women s sexuality and the body politic during and after Zimbabwe s liberation struggle gendered poverty production and wealth creation homosexuality in both the public and private spheres religio political and economic patronages gendered cyber victimization the trapping of women in gendered tradition culture religion and power politics and gendered literatures and metaphors The book s findings are critically important especially when it comes to African societies where any association with any religion political party and even social clubs has been gendered and sexualised to bar women from playing any participative role They cut across disciplines and cultures to empower people in theory and practice The Zimbabwe Law Reports ,1998 Pentecostalism in Malawi Ulf Strohhahn, 2005
