

AP® Spanish Language Syllabus

Course Overview

Students will continue to develop a command of the Spanish language in a Spanish only environment (_____) focusing on the integration of skills through written and aural language. They will increase their verbal and written proficiency as well in formal and informal venues. They will review vigorously the grammatical structures to enhance their accuracy. Since Spanish is a living language, I attempt to bring anything into the mix from the mundane to the outrageous to allow them an array of learning contexts. We may be reading serious news one day and have a poetry challenge the next. Although the texts used are outstanding, to keep it alive there are many authentic sources used and are outlined at the end. These include but are not limited to audio, video and varied written sources. We have computer lab with listening and speaking capabilities to differentiate the student's experience. A successful student arriving in 5AP is an eclectic blend of many different strengths and an unlimited potential for growth. I embrace the challenge of helping each one grow in their own way and having them aid in the process with their strengths.

Student signature

It is my view that the AP language classes are the richest classes anywhere. We do not stop at solely language acquisition. We really embody at least 9 other classes in content including humanities, history, phonetics, literature, music, drama, economics, business and science to name a few. So with that variety comes the responsibility to make sure that the students, using the target language as a starting point, have the ability to not only integrate multiple skills in their speaking and writing but also integrate a multitude of disciplines.
