Aboke Girls Els de Temmerman, 2001 In September 2011 the author and her husband David set out on an adventurous holiday to Kenya A couple for thirty three years they had first met in Zambia Africa had played a major part in their life together And there in the early hours of 11 September tragedy struck them This title tells this story Plight and Fate of Children During and Following Genocide Samuel Totten, 2018-04-17 Plight and Fate of Children During and Following Genocide examines why and how children were mistreated during genocides in the twentieth and twenty first centuries Among the cases examined are the Australian Aborigines the Armenian genocide the Holocaust the Mayans in Guatemala the 1994 Rwanda genocide and the genocide in Darfur Two additional chapters examine the issues of sexual and gender based violence against children and the phenomenon of child soldiers Following an introduction by Samuel Totten the essays include Australia's Aboriginal Children Hell is for Children Children The Most Vulnerable Victims of the Armenian Genocide Children and the Holocaust The Fate of Mentally and Physically Disabled Children in Nazi Germany The Plight and Fate of Children vis a vis the Guatemalan Genocide The Plight of Children During and Following the 1994 Rwandan Genocide Darfur Genocide Sexual and Gender Based Violence against Children during Genocide and Child Soldiers Contributors include Colin Tatz Henry C Theriault Asya Darbinyan Rubina Perroomian Jeffrey Blutinger Amanda Grzyb Elisa von Joeden Forgey Sara Demir Hannibal Travis and Samuel Totten The editor and several of the contributors have personally investigated and witnessed the aftermath of genocidal campaigns The Greenwood Encyclopedia of Children's Issues Worldwide Irving Epstein, 2007-12-30 From the skyrocketing AIDS rate in Haiti to the oppressive pollution in industrial China from the violent street culture of Nigeria to the crippling poverty in Nicaragua from child trafficking in Thailand to child marriages in India this jam packed six volume set explores all these issues and more in an unprecedented look at the world's children at the dawn of the 21st century In recent years while many countries have enjoyed a higher standard of living and improved working conditions others have been torn apart by war and incapacitated by famine and are struggling to improve life for their children and their future Recent concern over the world's children has resulted in a global attempt to define what constitutes an acceptable childhood New attention has been paid not only to healthcare and secondary education but also to the right to play and increased access to technology The UN's codification of children's rights has done much to expand our understanding of what is needed for healthy growth and development of children and youth Organized by region The Greenwood Encyclopedia of Children's Issues Worldwide is the first globally focused set of this magnitude offering extensive up to date coverage of these critical issues Original chapters accessibly synthesize current data on key topics including education play and recreation child labor family health laws and legal status religious life abuse and neglect and growing up in the 21st century Sexual Violence in Conflict and Post-Conflict Societies Doris Buss, Joanne Lebert, Blair Rutherford, Donna Sharkey, Obijiofor Aginam, 2014-07-17 This book brings together a unique blend of researchers civil society and community activists all working on different aspects of conflict sexual violence on the African continent The contributions included here offer a detailed reading of the social and political climate within which some patterns of sexual violence unfold and the increased policy and institutional responses shaping post conflict environments The chapters are organized around three main themes the continuities between conflict sexual violence and post conflict insecurity the troubling category of victim and its representation in post conflict settings and the international contexts such as international programming aid and justice interventions that shape how conflict sexual violence is addressed The authors come to the topic from various academic disciplines anthropology gender studies law and psychology and from different non academic contexts including civil society organizations in affected regions and policy and activist organizations in the Global North Collectively the chapters in this volume offer complex and detailed analysis of some of the debates and dynamics shaping contemporary understandings of conflict sexual violence highlighting in turn new insights and emerging topics on which further research and advocacy is needed

Responsibility to Protect R. Cooper, J. Voïnov Kohler, 2009-01-05 In 2005 the international community unanimously endorsed a revolutionary norm that has the potential to end genocide and other atrocity crimes in our time Despite its endorsement at the highest political level and the general feeling of the American public that something needs to be done to prevent and stop atrocity crimes the Responsibility to Protect R2P is very much absent from public thinking and the political agenda in the United States Written by a stellar cast of authors this book informs the public and leadership about R2P and its potential It will also influence the academic community and political debates by providing crucial insights on how to move R2P from rhetoric to action

Terrorist Groups and the New Tribalism Jeffrey Kaplan, 2010-02-25 The central focus of this book is a small but vitally important group of movements that constitute a distinct fifth wave of modern terrorism here called the New Tribalism Terrorist Groups and the New Tribalism examines a collection of terrorist or insurgent movements whose similarity in tactics strategic vision and desire to radically reshape their worlds to conform with a Golden Age dream of perfection which is to be achieved through a genocidal or ethnic cleansing process to make way for the emergence of a new radically perfected tribal utopia in a single generation These shared strategic and tactical factors allow them to be examined through a comparative lens as a distinct fifth wave of modern terrorism Structured around the theoretical framework of David Rapoport's Four Waves thesis the book examines anomalous movements that began within a distinct wave of international terrorism but following a crisis model has turned inwards toward radical localism tribalism and xenophobia The text is divided between theory and in depth case studies of the Ugandan Lord's Resistance Army and the Sudanese Janjaweed It concludes with a design for further field work based research This book will be of interest to students of Terrorism and Political Violence Genocide Conflict Studies African politics and Political Science in general Jeffrey Kaplan is an Associate Professor of Religion and the Director of the Institute for the Study of Religion Violence and Memory at the University of Wisconsin Oshkosh He is the author of 11 books on terrorism and political violence      Pillars of the Nation Kristen E. Cheney, 2007-10 How can children simultaneously be the most important and least powerful people in a nation In her innovative ethnography of Ugandan children the pillars of tomorrow's Uganda according to the national youth anthem Kristen E Cheney answers this question by exploring the daily contradictions children face as they try to find their places amid the country's rapidly changing social conditions Drawing on the detailed life histories of several children Cheney shows that children and childhood are being redefined by the desires of a young country struggling to position itself in the international community She moves between urban schools music festivals and war zones to reveal how Ugandans are constructing childhood as an empowering identity for the development of the nation Moreover through her analysis of children's rights ideology national government strategy and children's everyday concerns Cheney also shows how these young citizens are vitally linked to the global political economy as they navigate the pitfalls and possibilities for a brighter tomorrow      Child, Victim, Soldier Donald H. Dunson, 2008 Sunday Obote was only seven when he was kidnapped by the Lord's Resistance Army a rebel group in northern Uganda His life abruptly changed from peaceful village life where he fished and hunted with his friends to the savagery of the LRA Sunday was turned into a child soldier trained to kill on demand even killing other children      Protracted Conflict, Elusive Peace Okello Lucima, 2002 Political map of Uganda      Forced Prostitution in Times of War and Peace Barbara Drinck, Chung-Noh Gross, 2007

Report on the Situation of Children and Women in Uganda UNICEF, 2005      Law Society Journal, 2003      No Room at the Table Donald H. Dunson, 2003 Donald Dunson tells the stories of our children from New Orleans to the Sudan Each chapter profiles three or four individuals as it probes an issue affecting the world's children including hunger and poverty war sexual exploitation homelessness and the universal need for love No Room at the Table concludes with a list of resources for involvement and action It is an eye and heart opening work Book jacket      A Lost Generation, 2007      Les enlèvements d'enfants dans le Nord de l'Ouganda, 2005-01-01 Le 9 octobre 1996 139 jeunes filles furent enlevées de l'école St Mary's au nord de l'Ouganda A travers le destin de quelques unes de ces jeunes filles la journaliste Els de Temmerman évoque celui de dizaines de milliers d'enfants enlevés dans le Nord de l'Ouganda par l'Armée de Résistance du Seigneur condamnés à être utilisés comme soldats ou servir d'esclaves sexuels aux commandants rebelles Elle a critiqué aussi les efforts inlassables de Soeur Rachele directrice adjointe de l'école St Mary's pour obtenir leur libération la conduisant auprès des plus hautes autorités politiques et religieuses      The Women's Movement in Uganda Aili Mari Tripp, Joy C. Kwesiga, 2002 The women's movements in Uganda flourished in the mid eighties influencing diverse spheres of life They have since become exemplary in Africa and have led many advances in women's rights The contributors of this book look at the achievements of the movements from their roots in the post independence period to the contemporary moment Themes include women's activism in colonial Uganda contributions to girls education women's agency in business and the economy women in agriculture and the struggle for land and women's role in conflict resolution religious institutions and the media The book also contains sections on women's writing and publishing and the importance of creative work for wider female independence and self-determination an overview of women's studies research 1986-2001 and brief biographies of Ugandan women leaders The African Book Publishing Record, 2002 Encyclopedia of Children and Childhood Paula S. Fass, 2004 This 3 vol set presents the social and cultural history of childhood from antiquity to the present Children and Childhood examines this history through articles on education parenting child labor economics images of childhood children's literature play toys and games health physiology law the criminal justice system and social welfare

Taking the Law Into Their Own Hands Bruce Baker, 2002 Over much of Africa crime and insurgency are a serious problem and one in which the distinction between the two is being eroded Left without state protection people have sought to preserve their lives and property through vigilante groups and militias that pay scant attention to the law or human rights Likewise the state security forces under pressure to cut crime and rebel activity readily discard lawful procedures Torture provides them with vital information whilst extra judicial executions save the need to go through the prolonged criminal justice system After a general overview of the role of the rule of law in a democratic society Bruce Baker provides five case studies that capture the current complex realities and their impact on the new democracies The citizen responses considered are vigilantes in East African pastoral economies The Bakassi Boys an anti crime group in Nigeria and private policing initiatives in South Africa The state responses are those of the Ugandan Defence Forces towards the Lords Resistance Army the Senegalese army towards the Casamance secessionists and the Mozambique Police response towards criminals

A World Turned Upside Down Neil Boothby, Alison Strang, Michael G. Wessells, 2006 Authors with wide ranging experience with children in war zones across the globe Looks at the psychology of children's experiences in conflict in the context of their families and communities A World Turned Upside Down looks at the experiences of children in war from a psychological and social ecological perspective offering thoughtful observations and dispelling myths about what results when children grow up in conflict situations In contrast to individualized approaches the volume offers a deeper conceptualization that shows the socially mediated impacts of war Children exposed to the same traumatic experiences may have different reactions and needs for psychosocial support Further psychosocial assistance to war affected children often occurs not through the provision of therapy by outsiders but via support from insiders Each contributor has worked extensively with children in war zones in Europe Africa Latin America and Asia They refrain from common perceptions of children as victims of war induced trauma to provide a holistic understanding of children's experiences Each helps pinpoint ways to reduce further violence foster well being and nurture the kinds of social connections that can liberate children from the pathologies of war so that they can mature into healthy and well adjusted adults Other contributors Alastair Ager Cairo Arafat Catherine Chen Amy E Hepburn Kathleen Kostelny Siobh n McEvoy Levy Susan McKay Dahab Musleh and Carl Triplehorn
