Book of Harmony Martin J. Lohrmann,2016-09-07 The Reformation era writings that make up the Lutheran Confessions remain lively resources for Christian ministry and mission today Because each of the documents within the Book of Concord was written with a specific context and rhetorical purpose in mind each has its own compelling story and objectives Luther s catechisms present the faith for daily life at the grass roots level with teaching elements that we might now view as typical of social media and multimedia The Augsburg Confession and its Apology provide an adaptable foundation for preaching teaching church organization and dialogue that is rooted in the promise of Christ received through faith Fifteen years after the Diet of Worms the Smalcald Articles reveal yet another Here I stand moment for Luther Finally the Formula of Concord shows how the next generations of Lutherans used collaboration and consensus as they wrestled with important themes of faith and life In summary as these texts engage us with their stories they invite us to consider what is most important about our journeys of faith and Christian witness in today s twenty first century contexts A

Christian-Muslim Comparative Theology of Saints Hans A. Harmakaputra,2022-09-19 In A Christian Muslim Comparative Theology of Saints The Community of God s Friends Hans A Harmakaputra focuses on a question that emerges from today s multi faith context Is it possible for Christians to recognize non Christians as saints To answer affirmatively he offers a Christian perspective on an inclusive theology of saints through the lens of comparative theology that is based on the thought of Catholic Protestant and Muslim theologians Karl Rahner Jean Luc Marion Elizabeth Johnson Dietrich Bonhoeffer Paul Tillich and Ibn Arab As a result of this interreligious comparison three theological constructs emerge 1 saints as manifestations and revealers of God s self communication 2 the hiddenness of saints and 3 saints as companions These theological constructs redefine and reconfigure Christian understanding of saints on one hand and on the other hand provide theological reasoning to include non Christians in the Christian notion of the communion of saints Connections: A

Lectionary Commentary for Preaching and Worship Joel B. Green,Thomas G. Long,Luke A. Powery,Luke Powery,Cynthia L. Rigby,Carolyn J. Sharp,2019-11-20 Designed to empower preachers as they lead their congregations to connect their lives to Scripture Connections features a broad set of interpretive tools that provide commentary and worship aids on the Revised Common Lectionary For each worship day within the three year lectionary cycle the commentaries in Connections link the individual lection reading with Scripture as a whole as well as to the larger world In addition Connections places each Psalm reading in conversation with the other lections for the day to highlight the themes of the liturgical season Finally sidebars offer additional connections to Scripture for each Sunday or worship day This nine volume series is a practical constructive and valuable resource for preachers who seek to help congregations connect more closely with Scripture This volume covers Year A for Lent through Pentecost

Feminism in Practice Karen A. Foss,Sonja K. Foss,Alena Amato Ruggerio,2021-09-23 Feminism in Practice uses feminism as a blueprint for exploring change strategies It features twenty contemporary feminists from diverse arenas including activists comedians musicians politicians poets and showrunners The women come to life through line drawings brief biographies extensive quotations their definitions of feminism and the change strategies they employ Questions for reflection encourage readers to think through their own relationship to feminism and change Chapter 1 defines feminism raising issues with the typical definition of feminism as the effort to achieve equality between women and men It concludes with a description of over twenty types of feminism Chapter 2 describes the triggering events happening places and key ideas of the four waves of feminism The opening chapters provide a comprehensive understanding of the diversity and complexity of feminist movement The book is organized around five primary objectives that animate contemporary change efforts proclaiming identity naming a problem enriching a system changing a system and creating an alternative system Each objective is developed through theoretical assumptions and twelve change strategies that show it at work in feminist movement Feminism in Practice also serves as a practical handbook that readers can use to experiment with the strategies and expand their toolkits for creating change in their lives and worlds The authors are uniquely qualified to explore issues of feminism and change Karen Foss and Sonja Foss are second wave feminists who have written extensively on alternative change strategies feminist communication and feminist theory Alena Ruggerio brings to the project the standpoint of a third wave feminist at home in pop culture Her scholarship lies at the intersection of rhetoric feminism and religious studies To learn more about Feminism in Practice listen to the authors October 2021 interview on The Jefferson Exchange

In Solidarity with the Earth Hilda P. Koster, Celia Deane-Drummond, 2023-09-21 Based on case studies the book creates a multidisciplinary conversation on the gendered vulnerabilities resulting from extractive industries and toxic pollution and also charts the resilience and courage of women as they resist polluting industries fight for clean water and seek to protect the land While ecumenical in scope the book takes its departure from the concept of integral ecology introduced in Pope Francis encyclical Laudato Si The first three sections of the book focus on the social and ecological challenges facing minoritized women and their communities that are related to mining pollutants and biodiversity loss and toxicity The final section of the book focuses on the possibilities and obstacles to global solidarity All chapters offer a cross disciplinary response to a particular local situation tracing the ways ecological destruction resulting from extraction and toxic contamination affects the lives of women and their communities The book pays careful attention to the political economic and legal structures facilitating these life threatening challenges Each section concludes with a response from a practitioner in the field representing an ecclesial organization or NGO focused on eco justice advocacy in the global South or minority communities in the global North

Ministry Matters Michael Plekon, 2024-06-20 Congregations are shrinking and in decline Fewer people are part of communities of faith Michael Plekon's previous book Community as Church traced the factors behind this as well as the resurrection of parishes that have reimaged themselves in diverse ways Pastors have played essential roles in such transformation But where are the ordained today Ministry Matters is a sustained meditation on the vocation lives and work of pastors today We listen to an ecumenical group of exceptional pastor theologians on how pastors live and serve These include George Keith Nicholas Afanasiev Barbara Brown Taylor C Andrew Doyle Andrew Root Sarah Coakley Samuel Wells Rowan Williams Henri Nouwen Pope Francis David Barnhart and Will Willimon with commentary from Michael Plekon who has served as priest in both western and eastern churches for over forty years Many years of pastoral experience are shared here providing a feast of reflection on the shepherds of God's flock
