Renaissance Futuristics Charlene Villaseñor Black,Mari-Tere Álvarez,2019-11-05 At publication date a free ebook version of this title will be available through Luminos University of California Press's Open Access publishing program. Visit www.luminosoa.org to learn more. Renaissance Futurities considers the intersections between artistic rebirth, the new science and European imperialism in the global early modern world. Charlene Villaseor Black and Mari Tere lvarez take as inspiration the work of Renaissance genius Leonardo da Vinci (1452-1519), prolific artist and inventor, and other polymaths such as philosopher Giulio Delminio Camillo (1480-1544), physician and naturalist Francisco Hernández de Toledo (1514-1587) and writer Miguel de Cervantes (1547-1616). This concern with futurity is inspired by the Renaissance itself, a period defined by visions of the future as well as by recent theorizing of temporality in Renaissance and Queer Studies. This transdisciplinary volume is at the cutting edge of the humanities, medical humanities, scientific discovery and avant garde artistic expression.

Gender, Self, and Society Renate von Bardeleben, 1993. This collection is comprised of 35 critical articles as well as selected poems presented during the IV International Conference on the Hispanic Cultures of the United States. The symposium was organized by Renate von Bardeleben in cooperation with Juan Bruce Novoa, Erlinda Gonzales Berry and María Herrera Sobek and held at the University of Mainz in Germersheim in 1990. Under the central theme of Gender, Self and Society, the volume focuses on the intricate interplay of gender in the process of individuation and socialization. The spectrum of topics includes gender and genre theory, the writing of a gendered literary history, the poetic quest of men and women writers, sexual stereotyping in fiction, the emergence of the male-female self as man/woman and writer, interracial sexual relations, intergenerational gender relations, gender and the sense of place, the frontier heroine, the use of literary motifs and folkloric elements in female writings, the impact of the literary tradition and the crosscultural influence of gender concepts. The focus on gender unmasks subtle, submerged and subversive developments in the interaction between the sexes in these traditionally male oriented cultures. New light is shed on topics ranging from politics and sociology to literature, linguistics and the arts.

The Road to Aztlan Virginia M. Fields, Victor Zamudio-Taylor, 2001. Published in conjunction with the major exhibition The Road to Aztlan. Art from a Mythic Homeland explores the art derived from and created about the legendary area that encompasses the American Southwest and portions of Mexico long before they were separated by an international border. The book and accompanying exhibition view Aztlan as a metaphoric centre and allegorical place of origin for the various peoples of the Southwest and Mexico. Cultural interactions between the two areas span two millennia, beginning with maize cultivation which spread north from Mexico around BC 1200. The book also investigates the relationship between myth and history as expressed in art and material culture of the region's inhabitants over time and the relationship and continuities of cultural practices over the course of the pre-Columbian, colonial and contemporary eras. Crucial to these changing relationships are aspects of tradition and innovation within cultures as people sought to negotiate
