BOOK JACKET In Full Color Rachel Dolezal, Storms Reback, 2017-03-28 A lot of people have made up their minds about Rachel Dolezal But none of them know her real story In June 2015 the media outed Rachel Dolezal as a white woman who had knowingly been passing as Black When asked if she were African American during an interview about the hate crimes directed at her and her family she hesitated before ending the interview and walking away Some interpreted her reluctance to respond and hasty departure as dishonesty while others assumed she lacked a reasonable explanation for the almost unprecedented way she identified herself What determines your race Is it your DNA The community in which you were raised The way others see you or the way you see yourself With In Full Color Rachel Dolezal describes the path that led her from being a child of white evangelical parents to an NAACP chapter president and respected educator and activist who identifies as Black Along the way she recounts the deep emotional bond she formed with her four adopted Black siblings the sense of belonging she felt while living in Black communities in Jackson Mississippi and Washington DC and the experiences that have shaped her along the way Her story is nuanced and complex and in the process of telling it she forces us to consider race in an entirely new light not as a biological imperative but as a function of the experiences we have the culture we embrace and ultimately the identity we choose

Christians and Politics Beyond the Culture Wars David P. Gushee, 2000 Assesses current state of Christian engagement in politics focusing on a variety of historical theological and theoretical issues and offering responses to current moral and social problems

The Encyclopedia of Christian Literature George Thomas Kurian, James D. Smith III, 2010-04-16 The written word is one of the defining elements of Christian experience As vigorous in the 1st century as it is in the 21st Christian literature has had a significant function in history and teachers and students need to be reminded of this powerful literary legacy Covering 2 000 years The Encyclopedia of Christian Literature is the first encyclopedia devoted to Christian writers and books In addition to an overview of the Christian literature this two volume set also includes 40 essays on the principal genres of Christian literature and more than 400 bio bibliographical essays describing the principal writers and their works These essays examine the evolution of Christian thought as reflected in the literature of every age The companion volume also features bibliographies an index a timeline of Christian Literature and a list of the greatest Christian authors The encyclopedia will appeal not only to scholars and Christian evangelicals but students and teachers in seminaries and theological schools as well as to the growing body of Christian readers and bibliophiles

Participation and Social Learning in Church-based Organizations Peter Obele Abue,2006 The Reconciler ,1996 Christian Scholar's Review ,2006 Community Building in the Twenty-first Century Stanley Hyland (Ph. D.),2005 Community has long been a critical concept for social scientists and never more so amid the growing economic inequity natural and human disasters and warfare of the opening years of the twenty first century In this volume leading scholar activists develop a conceptual framework for both the theory and practice of building communities Rethinking the very concept in light of technological change and globalization they examine local responses to worldwide trends study the ways that communities generate and use resources and evaluate existing theories and approaches to community building to determine the best strategies for fostering community strength and vitality Their work with groups ranging from refugees religious charities and poor urban neighborhoods to tribal peoples international corporations and public health agencies demonstrates that local communities contain the seeds for a more desirable future and suggests how we may encourage those seeds to grow

When African and Western Cultures Meet B. J. Van der Walt,2006 This title analyses many burning issues in South Africa and the rest of the vast African continent poverty development globalisation leadership styles different ways of viewing reality the inferior position of women and the crisis in agriculture

A Time to Heal Stephen E. Berk,1997 John Perkins has profoundly influenced both evangelicalism and the civil rights movement Now discover the central people and events that have shaped Perkins s life and ministry

Christianity and Social Work T. Laine Scales,North American Association of Christians in Social Work,2002

Cup of Water, Bread of Life Ronald J. Sider,1994 The author of the bestselling Rich Christians in an Age of Hunger now shows readers how to bridge the gap between evangelism and social ministry Sider tells of ministries that not only led people to a saving Jesus Christ but help them overcome social economic and political barriers

Christian charity in the ancient Church, tr. by S. Taylor Johann Gerhard W. Uhlhorn,1883 Urban Family ,1995 God of the Poor Dewi Arwel Hughes,Matthew Bennett,1998 Brings together two of the hallmarks of Christianity a submission to Scripture and a strong social conscience

A Property Development Strategy for Expanding the Spiritual Role of a Black Methodist Church Timothy James Simmons,1996
