Beyond Communities of Practice Gaela Bernini, 2006      Beyond Communities of Practice David Barton, Karin Tusting, 2005-10-03 The concept of communities of practice Lave and Wenger 1991 Wenger 1998 has become influential in education management and social sciences in recent years This volume emphasizes the significance of language power and social context in understanding how communities of practice work Domains of empirical research reported include schools police stations adult basic education higher education and multilingual settings The relationship between communities of practice and literacy studies critical language studies the ethnography of communication socio cultural activity theory and sociological theories of risk is also evaluated      Beyond Communities of Practice Tom Stehlik, Pam Carden, 2005 Communities of practice are groups of people who informally share develop and process learning knowledge and practice in whatever situation they are in They form when like minded people come together to achieve a goal or find that they have common interests and often develop into learning communities with transformative consequences for individuals In this collection authors from around Australia and from Finland investigate communities of practice in a range of diverse situations including new school teachers offshore university students probationary police constables working with mentors collaboration between scientists and funeral industry workers learning on the job In doing so they develop and go beyond the original theory of communities of practice adding new dimensions of experience such as the importance of power relations emotions and social identities The variety of case studies that are illustrated and the analysis and discussion presented will appeal to anyone with an interest in work based learning teachers who seek to foster inclusive learning communities and people who want to learn more about their own communities of practice and how they function      God Beyond Borders Sheryl A. Kujawa-Holbrook, 2014-03-17 Based on ten years of research God Beyond Borders is a comprehensive study of interreligious learning in faith communities The United States is one of the most religiously diverse countries of the world Kujawa Holbrook details the many practices of interreligious learning in faith communities through interreligious encounters religious education shared sacred space shared prayer and compassionate action The book also surveys the field of interreligious learning and investigates some of the more common intentionally interreligious communities families clergy groups chaplaincies and community organizations Kujawa Holbrook combines theory and praxis to make a case for the importance of interreligious learning in all religious organizations      Democracy Beyond the Nation State Joe Parker, 2017-06-26 Explores egalitarian means of governing found in rural villages and urban neighborhoods indigenous communities workplaces social movement organizations and other everyday local and global settings beyond the nation state      The Gospel Beyond the Grave Lewis Brogdon, 2025-06-09 Will Black lives matter beyond the grave at history s end and on the day of judgment In The Gospel Beyond the Grave Toward a Black Theology of Hope Lewis Brogdon brings the history and experiences of Black people to bear on eschatology Not only questioning why Black people have been ignored from the consideration of last things he argues that a theologically sound eschatology must include a divine reckoning for slavery and racism Brogdon also gives a fresh contextual lens to Christ's reconciliatory work that provides hope for our salvation from the sins of racism and a future together in a new heaven and new earth

Beyond the Book Warren L. Chernaik, Marilyn Deegan, Andrew Gibson, 1996

Religious Sounds Beyond the Global North Carola Lorea, Rosalind Hackett, 2025-10-01

What makes sounds religious How are communities shaped by the things they hear play or listen to This book foregrounds connections between sounds bodies and media in the private and public life of communities beyond the Global North analyzing diverse configurations of the category of sound and various sonic ontologies to usher in a more inclusive global anthro history of religious sounds Religious Sounds Beyond the Global North implements a sonic turn in the study of religion by engaging with a diversity of auditory musical and embodied practices Dislodging the Global North as the main point of reference for studies on religious sound in this volume editors Carola E Lorea and Rosalind I J Hackett propose an acoustemology of the post secular with an emphasis on Asia as method Unsettling and expanding existing discussions on senses media and power the editors present religious sounds as co creating subjectivities and collectivities that coalesce around audible aesthetic formations demonstrating that religious sounds are not only produced by certain religious traditions but also produce communities shaping the self and sensitivity of those who participate

Every Child's Right Lauren A. Sosniak, Nina Hersch Gabelko, 2008-04-12

No child should have to be identified as gifted in order to benefit from a rich challenging learning experience In Every Child's Right the authors tell an important story of possibility the possibility for significant academic achievement and intellectual engagement of children and youth across race ethnicity and social class They show us students learning together sharing interests and aspirations and accomplishing more than might seem possible This is not an account of all our children developing academic talent Instead it is a blend of theory and very concrete educational practice with compelling visions of greater possibilities more broadly distributed for the academic education of American youth Advocating for a different inclusive view of academic talent this valuable book Broadens the concept of academic talent beyond conventional practices and provides examples from a long standing program to illustrate this new concept Describes practices that have been successful with elementary students as well as high school students preparing to enter college Offers compelling portraits of real children delighting in intellectually demanding and engaging learning Identifies what is required of society and schools to offer these opportunities to all children in all classrooms
