Beyond Philosophy Subject Educational Post Structuralist:

Beyond the Philosophy of the Subject Michael A. Peters, Marek Tesar, 2015-11-19 This first volume focuses on a collection of texts from the latter twenty years of Educational Philosophy and Theory selected for their critical status as turning points or important awakenings in post structural theory In the last twenty years the applications of the postmodern and poststructuralist perspectives have become less mono focused less narrowly concerned with technical questions and also less interested in epistemology and more interested in ethics This book covers questions of genealogy ontology the body and the institution giving examples of theoretical applications of post structural theory that testify to the generative and endlessly applicable potential of this work to different fields and avenues of thought While informed by Foucault's thinking of the political subjugation of docile bodies to individuals as self determining beings the chapters in this book culminate in amalgamations of different schools of educational philosophy which explore poststructuralist approaches to education Beyond the Philosophy of the Subject will be key reading for academics researchers and postgraduate students in the fields of philosophy of education philosophy education educational theory post structural theory the policy and politics of education and the pedagogy of education Poststructuralism and Educational Research Michael A. Peters, Nicholas C.

Burbules, 2004-01-29 What does poststructuralism mean for authors such as Foucault Lyotard Cixous Derrida and Haraway to name a few and what significance does it have for educational inquiry This book takes on these central questions and explores the impact of poststructuralism in language theory Philosophical Perspectives on Compulsory Education Marianna Papastephanou, 2013-09-12 From antiquity to the present schools of some form have in one way or other been involved in the material and symbolic reproduction of societies Such diachronic resilience along with the synchronic omnipresence of schooling often makes schools appear as natural self evident and unavoidable This naturalization of schooling is then extended to its modern specification as compulsory in a universalist fashion This book does not only seek to explore what is left of older debates on compulsory education in the years hindsight but also to associate the discussion of schooling with new theoretical developments and new emphases It contains a first part which operates primarily at the conceptual and justificatory level and reserves a more or less qualified welcome to a revisited notion of compulsory And it supplements this first part with a second more applied one that focuses on specific aspects of compulsory schooling and or education From Luther down to John Stuart Mill and John Dewey compulsory education has been heralded either as a vehicle of social coordination and individual well being or as a vehicle of democratization and progress or as a means for protecting the rights of the young and of society and so on and so forth But there have also been periods of challenge and denaturalization of compulsory education producing a range of interesting and spirited debates not only on matters of educational legality but also on matters that boil down to broader philosophical questions about the self and the world Without neglecting the lasting significance of older debates argumentation over schooling its character and its scope can be recast in the light of current philosophical educational debates Given the fact that failure adequately to mine such connections leads to a lack in philosophical educational engagement with one of the most central pedagogical practices of the contemporary world namely the school the book aspires to remedy this lack and to put together work that addresses those connections through the highly original and innovative work of its contributors The subtext in all contributions is a vision of educational transformation in one way or other All chapters from the most theoretical to the most practice related promote a version of a recast or redirected compulsory schooling

Subjects in Process Michael A. Peters, Alicia de Alba, 2015-10-23 Subjects in Process investigates the human subject in the first decade of the twenty first century in relation to changing social circumstances and belongings The concept of subjectivity in the Western tradition has focused on the figure of the autonomous self conscious and rooted individual This book develops a conception of the subject that is nomadic and fluid rather than grounded and complete Written from a perspective that takes account of globalisation and the pressures that it places upon individuals and communities this book draws upon Nietzsche and the post modern thinkers that followed him Arguing that a modern conception of the subject must be one based on cultural exchanges and transformations this book is sure to provide new insights for anyone concerned with or interested in the identity of the individual now and in the future

Why Interculturalisation? Xiaoping Jiang,2008 This amazing highly readable book breaks a new ground in revealing the dominant theories and policies that have had profound effects on the strategies to accommodate cultural diversity on university campus This book has outlined an emerging concept of some considerable significance interculturalisation from a variety of contemporary perspectives and indicated its conceptual potential in understanding the impact of higher education on globalisation internationalisation and the knowledge economy
