Reading Assessment for Placement and Programming Judi Lesiak, Sharon Bradley-Johnson, 1983

Assessment of Special Children Joseph C. Witt, 1988

Assessment and Instruction of Reading and Writing Difficulty Marjorie Y. Lipson, Karen K. Wixson, 2003

Focusing on ability disability and reading writing from an interactive perspective this text emphasizes the importance of determining and establishing the appropriate learning environment for the individual learner. Extensive in depth treatment of current research and best practices make this text a must have addition to any current or future teacher's library. Section I Chs 1-3 provides the readers with a strong comprehensive knowledge of reading writing research and assessment practices from which readers can move forward to the second and third sections of the text Chs 4-10 which contain detailed discussions and examples of assessment practices. Traditional assessments of students are fully explored and two chapters are devoted to assessing context factors like instructional methods and materials and tasks. Both classroom based and standardized assessments are described. Section IV stands alone as an important chapter linking assessment to instruction by means of diagnostic instruction. Section V Ch 12-15 is devoted to instructional practices designed to improve reading and writing instruction for struggling students. Chapters on word recognition vocabulary comprehension composition and high utility strategies address the major components of literacy development. In the final section Ch 16 issues related to professional standards and written reports is addressed. Implementing Response-to-Intervention to Address the Needs of English-Language Learners Holly S. Hudspeth-Niemi, Mary Lou Conroy, 2013-06-26. There is considerable concern surrounding the complex issue of how to meet the learning needs of English language learners within general and special education programs. Implementing Response to Intervention to Address the Needs of English Language Learners increases school psychologists knowledge of intervention strategies related to ELLs through its examination of the challenges associated with evaluating ELLs and by providing a collaborative framework to enhance educational identification and placement in special education. It accomplishes this by incorporating research based intervention approaches for ELLs and offering a comprehensive guide to the processes and tools that school teams should consider when utilizing a response to intervention model to support the academic and behavioral needs of ELLs. With a strong focus on alternative assessment collaboration and parental involvement this volume is a definitive touchstone in the quest to provide culturally responsive pedagogy and appropriate adapted classroom instruction for English language learners of various proficiency levels.
