Beyond Narrative Coherence Studies In Narrative:

Beyond Narrative Coherence Matti Hyvärinen,Lars-Christer Hydén,Marja Saarenheimo,Maria Tamboukou,2010-01-13 Beyond Narrative Coherence reconsiders the way we understand and work with narratives Even though narrators tend to strive for coherence they also add complexity challenge canonical scripts and survey lives by telling highly perplexing and contradictory stories Many narratives remain incomplete ambiguous and contradictory Obvious coherence cannot be the sole moral standard the only perspective of reading or the criterion for selecting and discarding research material Beyond

Narrative Coherence addresses the limits and aspects of narrative dis cohering by offering a rich theoretical and historical background to the debate Limits of narrative coherence are discussed from the perspective of three fields of life that often threaten the coherence of narrative illness arts and traumatic political experience The authors of the book cover a wide range of disciplines such as psychology sociology arts studies political science and philosophy

Beyond Observations

Susanne Garvis,Elin Eriksen Ødegaard,Narelle Lemon,2015-01-01 This book provides important insights into narratives and young children It is structured to help others learn more about the importance of narrative approaches and early childhood education The first section of the book explores the concept of narrative across the current research field The second section explores a range of different narrative methods related to young children Readers will discover how narrative methods empower children to be heard and respected by adults They will also discover the importance of narrative methods in allowing a sharing of understanding knowledge and trust in contemporary times Overall the book aims to encourage readers to critically reflect on new ways of thinking about contemporary research and young children

Beyond Loss

Lars-Christer Hydén,Hilde Lindemann,Jens Brockmeier,2014 Coming to terms with dementia is one of the great challenges of our time This volume of new interdisciplinary essays by internationally established scholars offers new ways of understanding and dealing with it It explores views of dementia that go beyond the idea of loss and rather envisions it as multilayered transformation and change of personhood and identity and as development that mostly is socially shared with others The studies collected here identify new empirical theoretical and methodological areas that will be crucial to future research and clinical practice concerned with age related dementia Three general themes are singled out as of particular importance and interest persons and personhood identity and agency and the social and the communal Emerging Vectors of Narratology Per Krogh Hansen, John Pier, Philippe Roussin, Wolf Schmid, 2017-08-07 Narratology has been flourishing in recent years thanks to investigations into a broad spectrum of narratives at the same time diversifying its theoretical and disciplinary scope as it has sought to specify the status of narrative within both society and scientific research The diverse endeavors engendered by this situation have brought narrative to the forefront of the social and human sciences and have generated new synergies in the research environment Emerging Vectors of Narratology brings together 27 state of the art contributions by an international panel of authors that provide insight into the wealth of new developments in the field The book consists of two sections Contexts includes articles that reframe and refine such topics as the implied author narrative causation and transmedial forms of narrative it also investigates various historical and cultural aspects of narrative from the narratological perspective Openings expands on these and other questions by addressing the narrative turn cognitive issues narrative complexity and metatheoretical matters The book is intended for narratologists as well as for readers in the social and human sciences for whom narrative has become a crucial matrix of inquiry Knowledge and Pain, 2012-01-01 Pain studies both in exact sciences and in the humanities are a fast shifting field This volume condenses a spectrum of recent views of pain through the lens of humanistic studies Methodologically the volume is an interdisciplinary study of the questions pertaining to the accessibility of pain physical or emotional to understanding and of the possible influence of suffering on the enhancement of knowledge in private experience or public sphere Undeterred by the widespread belief that pain cannot be expressed in language and that it is intransmissible to others the authors of the essays in the collection show that the replicability of records and narratives of human experience provides a basis for the kind of empathetic attention dialogue and contact that can help us to register the pain of another and understand its conditions and contexts Needless to say the improvement of this understanding may also help map the ways for the ethics of response to and help for pain Whereas the authors of the volume tend to share the view of pain as a totally negative phenomenon the position taken in Elaine Scarry's The Body in Pain they hold this view applicable mainly to the attitudes to the pain of others and the imperative of minimise the causes of another's suffering They also consider this view to be culturally and temporally circumscribed The volume suggests that one's own personal experience of suffering along with the awareness of the seriality of such experience among fellow sufferers can be conducive to emotional and intellectual growth The reading of literature dealing with pain can lead to similar results through vicariously experienced suffering whose emotional corollaries and intellectual consequences may be conveyed through artistic rather than discursive means The distinctive features of the volume are that it processes these issues in a historicising way deploying the history of the ideas of pain from the Middle Ages to the present day and that it makes use of the methodology of different disciplines to do so arriving to similar conclusions through as it were different paths The disciplines include analytic philosophy historiography history of science oral history literary studies and political science Excellence in Dementia Care: Research into Practice Murna
