Breakthrough Advertising In The 20th Century Theo (nomad Clicker),2020-11-05 This is a historical recursion of how advertising appeared and evolved through the years It covers both its roots starting from antiquity but focuses mainly on the advertising evolution in the 20th century its connection to human psychology as well as how advertisers kept adapting with new ideas every time the world changed It refers to all the major examples and figures that shaped what we call advertising today From Freud s theories about the libido to Clinton s campaign management and from the first public ancient ad appearance to the most innovative and groundbreaking examples in the 20th century like the famous Apple Computer ad in 1984 It provides a holistic view of what happened in the industry It can be read by anybody but especially by advertisers marketers and psychologists This is aimed to be a good fit for your library collection and I really hope you will enjoy it

How to Write Ads That Get The Sale! Dr. Robert C. Worstell,2014-08-09 While the Masters of Marketing Secrets series had already been mined for the history of Advertising and Salesmanship classics I still hadn t told anyone which were the key books out of that dozen which held the core datums where a person could learn the rainmaking skill of copywriting From this book series I've created this collection which specifically selected only the books which deal best with copywriting itself The other two collections which preceded this dealt with the evolution of advertising itself and defined salesmanship in a low pressure scenario which is becoming more the way online sales has trended In fact you'll get banned on various sites if you try anything else This collection is bringing you the best and brightest of copywriting experts so you can learn first hand what it is that is required to get sales from every ad you write For that is the test of good copywriting it gets the sale When Ads Work David M Jones, 2015-03-26 The accepted wisdom in advertising is that ad campaigns are good for building brand recognition and good will but not for immediate sales impact When Ads Work argues the opposite that well planned and well executed advertising campaigns can and should have an immediate impact on sales Featuring numerous examples from recent ad campaigns the new edition of this popular book is a model for any successful advertising research program With a device he calls STAS Short Term Advertising Strength a measure of the immediate effect of advertising on sales the author demonstrates that the strongest ad campaigns can triple sales while the weakest campaigns can actually cause sales to fall by more than 50 percent He exposes sales promotions as wasteful especially when they are unsupported by advertising and also demonstrates the strong synergy that can operate between advertising and promotion when they are planned and executed in an integrated fashion When Ads Work offers eye opening research and practical information that no one who studies advertising or spends advertising dollars can afford to ignore Advertising and Anthropology Timothy de Waal Malefyt, Robert J. Morais, 2020-05-14 Examining theory and practice Advertising and Anthropology is a lively and important contribution to the study of organizational culture consumption practices marketing to consumers and the production of creativity in corporate settings The chapters reflect the authors extensive lived experience as professionals in the advertising business and marketing research industry Essays analyze internal agency and client meetings competitive pressures and professional relationships and include multiple case studies The authors describe the structure function and process of advertising agency work the mediation and formation of creativity the centrality of human interactions in agency work the production of consumer insights and industry ethics Throughout the book the authors offer concrete advice for practitioners Advertising and Anthropology is written by anthropologists for anthropologists as well as students and scholars interested in advertising and related industries such as marketing marketing research and design
