Kirsh, 2019-06-04 Parenting is difficult under the best of circumstances but extremely daunting when humanity faces cataclysmic annihilation When the dead rise hardship violence and the ever present threat of flesh eating zombies will adversely affect parents and children alike Depending on their age children will have little chance of surviving a single encounter with the undead let alone the unending peril of the Zombie Apocalypse The key to their survival and thus the survival of the species will be the caregiving they receive Drawing on psychological theory and real world research on developmental status grief trauma mental illness and child rearing in stressful environments this book critically examines factors influencing parenting and the likely outcomes of different caregiving techniques in the hypothetical landscape of the living dead

Shadow Cinema James Fenwick, Kieran Foster, David Eldridge, 2020-11-12 Filmmakers and cinema industries across the globe invest more time money and creative energy in projects and ideas that never get produced than in the movies that actually make it to the screens Thousands of projects are abandoned in pre production halted cut short or even made and never distributed a shadow cinema that exists only in the archives This collection of essays by leading scholars and researchers opens those archives to draw on a wealth of previously unexamined scripts correspondence and production material reconstructing many of the hidden histories of the last hundred years of world cinema Highlighting the fact that the movies we see are actually the exception to the rule this study uncovers the myriad reasons why failures occur and considers how understanding those failures can transform the disciplines of film and media history The first survey of this new area of empirical study across transnational borders Shadow Cinema is a vital and
