AUTHOR,2015-07-16 Excerpt from An Appeal to Experience and Common Sense By a Comparison of the Present With Former Periods The period at which we are now arrived seems to demand a more consistent proceeding we are called upon for a third time within the memory of a great part of the nation to look our dangers and our difficulties in the face but if we persist in supposing that our present situation has no parallel and that our dangers can be averted by no recurrence to precedent we shall certainly suffer by ignorance with the means of knowledge in our hands and give ourselves up to the inactivity of prejudice and the deceits of party spirit in spite of the most decided experience and in contempt of our clearest interests Already the language of despondence is plentifully circulated and predictions are uttered with a decisive tone although but the mere duplicates of others which never were fulfilled and which perhaps were never intended for any other than a temporary purpose About the Publisher Forgotten Books publishes hundreds of thousands of rare and classic books Find more at www.forgottenbooks.com This book is a reproduction of an important historical work Forgotten Books uses state of the art technology to digitally reconstruct the work preserving the original format whilst repairing imperfections present in the aged copy In rare cases an imperfection in the original such as a blemish or missing page may be replicated in our edition We do however repair the vast majority of imperfections successfully any imperfections that remain are intentionally left to preserve the state of such historical works
