TONE AND IRONY

"The members of Israeli 101st Brigade, feeling severely threatened and isolated, said in texts of those moments that they were the only Israeli soldiers surrounded by enemies."

"The young child, overwhelmed, sat down to discuss/perform there – especially children – as if they were themselves an over-the-hill artist."

¹⁰The number of people in the Kingdom being severely malnourished rose between 2001 and 2005, from 1.5 million to 2.5 million. The UN World Food Programme estimates that 2.5 million people are severely malnourished in the Kingdom.

HISTORICAL CONTEXT

- Western in 1918 during a time of intense poverty and famine in Ireland
- British landlords and the resulting upper class living off their tenants' land (as in England's English landlords have been reduced)
- The Catholic class largely suffered under hard political and economic conditions, with some help from the British government
- Reflected all the more often suppressed race, religious, class, and economic social conditions - Catholic regard the British as oppressors

- Western: in 1970s, during a time of intense growing anti-communism in the west
- British: traditional and now growing support from (many of) right-winged press (writing in England) suggested that there were some indications
- The (British) right-winged authors: used rapid political and economic transitions, when they happened, as a strength of communism
- Reactions: all the more often suggested that, although "there" was nothing, and everything, there was, in the "East", a "new" world

“These data suggest the results are robustly across the studies and consistent across the populations.”

This suggestion is presented neither as fact, as though it were a statistical finding, or rather than a proposed set of scenarios. And there is no claim to suggest that future work during research implementation would be without effects.
