The Sacred Paths Theodore M. Ludwig,2001 For courses in Religions of the World History of Religions Comparative Religion and Introduction to Religious Studies in departments of Religion Religious Studies Theology and Philosophy Unique in approach this text combines an historical descriptive presentation of individual religions with a comparative thematic approach It begins with a discussion of the basic human questions and concerns relating to religion e g origin and identity ultimate reality human nature and the good life and then uses these essential concepts to help describe the beliefs practices and historical development of each religion As the work of a single scholar much of it based on original research this book offers a consistency and depth missing in many of the texts in this field Islam Solomon Alexander Nigosian,2004 This compact introduction to Islam encapsulates the essential aspects of Islam as a living religion and social force The book is organized around seven topics the life of Muhammad Islamic political development and territorial expansion the important groupings of Islamic believers Sunni Shi ite and Sufi the Qur an the Holy Book of Islam Sunnah Hadith the record of the Prophet s actions and sayings and Shari ah the compilation of Islamic law the five Articles of Faith and the so called Five Pillars of Islam that govern faith and action and other binding religious observances and festivals The presentation of these seven aspects of Islam strikes a balance between fact tradition current interpretation and commentary S A Nigosian underscores two fundamental points that to understand Islam properly it is necessary to see it as a major faith tradition with Muhammad as the last of a series of messengers sent by God and that to grasp the spirit of Islam one must recognize its emphasis on an uncompromising monotheism with strict adherence to certain social political and religious practices as taught by the Prophet and elaborated by tradition The Spread of Islam Clarice Swisher,1999 A study of the religion of Islam its laws and function throughout the world Aramco and Its World Ismail I.
