Blood in Their Eyes Grif Stockley,2004-07-01 Grif Stockley tells the full story of this incident for the first time Also a lawyer he weighs the evidence in letters interviews newspapers and trial transcripts He makes a clear and powerful case that white mobs and federal soldiers murdered black citizens of Elaine Jacket

There Is a Deep Brooding in Arkansas Scott W. Stern,2025-01-28 A sweeping study of sexual assault trials in the Jim Crow South detailing the racial and economic inequities of rape law and the resistance of ordinary women In the early years of the twentieth century Mississippi County Arkansas was a brutal and profitable place Home to starving landless farmers the county produced almost 2 percent of the entire world's cotton It was also the site of two rape trials that made national headlines an accusation that sent two Black men almost certainly innocent to death row and the case of two white men almost certainly guilty who were likewise sentenced to death but who would ultimately face a very different fate Braiding together these stories Scott W Stern examines how the Jim Crow legal system relied on selectively prosecuting rape to uphold the racial gender and economic hierarchies of the segregated unequal South But as much as rape law was a site of oppression it was also Stern shows an arena of fierce resistance Based on deep archival research this kaleidoscopic narrative includes new information about the early career of Thurgood Marshall who called one of the Mississippi County trials worse than any we have had as yet and the anti rape activism of Maya Angelou who came of age in Arkansas and whose decision to write about her own sexual assault helped shape a burgeoning movement

A History of Southland College Thomas Kennedy,2009-11-01 In 1864 Alida and Calvin Clark two abolitionist members of the Religious Society of Friends from Indiana went on a mission trip to Helena Arkansas The Clarks had come to render temporary relief to displaced war orphans but instead found a lifelong calling During their time in Arkansas they started the school that became Southland College which was the first institution of higher education for blacks west of the Mississippi and they set up the first predominately black monthly meeting of the Religious Society of Friends in North America Their progressive racial vision was continued by a succession of midwestern Quakers willing to endure the primitive conditions and social isolation of their work and to overcome the persistent challenges of economic adversity social strife and natural disaster Southland's survival through six difficult and sometimes dangerous decades reflects both the continuing missionary zeal of the Clarks and their successors as well as the dedication of the black Arkansans who sought dignity and hope at a time when these were rare commodities for African Americans in Arkansas

Who Lives, Who Dies, Who Decides? Sheldon Ekland-Olson,2012-02-17 Issues of Life and Death such as abortion assisted suicide capital punishment and others are among the most contentious in many societies Whose rights are protected How do these rights and protections change over time and who makes those decisions Based on the author's award winning and hugely popular undergraduate course at the University of Texas this book explores these questions and the fundamentally sociological processes which underlie the quest for morality and justice in human societies The Author's goal is not to advocate any particular moral high ground but to shed light on the social movements and social processes which are at the root of these seemingly personal moral questions This book is also broken down into four smaller How Ethical Systems Change volumes Abortion and neonatal care www.routledge.com/9780415504492 Lynching and capital punishment www.routledge.com/9780415505192 Eugenics the Final Solution and Bioethics www.routledge.com/9780415501620 Tolerable Suffering and Assisted Dying www.routledge.com/9780415505161

Ruled by Race Grif Stockley, 2012-07 From the Civil War to Reconstruction the Redeemer period Jim Crow and the modern civil rights era to the present Ruled by Race describes the ways that race has been at the center of much of the state's formation and image since its founding Grif Stockley uses the work of published and unpublished historians and exhaustive primary source materials along with stories from authors as diverse as Maya Angelou and E Lynn Harris to bring to life the voices of those who have both studied and lived the racial experience in Arkansas
