BESTSELLER For a generation Anne Perry's New York Times bestselling novels have invited readers to explore the brilliantly seductive heart of Victorian London where great wealth and great evil live side by side and great men sometimes make unfortunate choices In Blind Justice Hester Monk the wife of William Monk commander of the Thames River Police questions the finances of a London church whose members hard earned charitable gifts appear to have ended up in the pocket of charismatic preacher Abel Taft paying for his fine home and the stylish outfits of his wife and daughters Taft is accused of extortion and brilliant barrister Oliver Rathbone newly appointed a judge is chosen to preside over his trial It seems clear that Taft is indeed guilty However at the last second the defense produces a witness who completely undermines the charges Then Rathbone makes a well meaning but reckless move that could ruin his career his reputation and his life Blind Justice presents a rich and lively panorama of London life from the teeming Thames docks to the wealthy West End while unfolding a magnificent courtroom drama And while justice law and morality hang in the balance Hester and Monk race to save their distinguished friend Rathbone from disgrace The incomparable art of Anne Perry grips us fast until the final unforgettable scene BONUS This edition includes an excerpt from Anne Perry's Blood on the Water Praise for Blind Justice A staggering achievement Perry's command of plot and prose shines Bookreporter Ranks among the best Anne Perry has written Her courtroom scenes have the realism of Scott Turow Huntington News Gripping Those who love Victorian England will relish Ms Perry's presentation of period details Her mastery of this time and place gives credence to the characters moral and legal struggles New York Journal of Books Praise for Anne Perry and her William Monk novels A Sunless Sea Anne Perry's Victorian mysteries are marvels The New York Times Book Review Acceptable Loss Masterful storytelling and moving dialogue The
