Magnetic Field(s) Ron Loewinsohn,2002 Organized around the idea that you can't know what a magnetic field is like unless you're inside of it Ron Loewinsohn's first novel opens from the disturbing perspective of a burglar in the midst of a robbery and travels through the thoughts and experiences both real and imaginary of a group of characters whose lives are connected both coincidentally and intimately All of the characters have a common desire to imagine and invent rather horrifying stories about the lives of people around them As the novel develops certain phrasings and images recur improbably drawing the reader into a subtle linguistic game that calls into question the nature of authorship the ways we inhabit and invade each other's lives and the shape of fiction itself Here C. S. Giscombe,1994 C S Giscombe's Here is a long single poem that takes place in a progression of three settings three unlikely locations the edges of the urban south the edges just beyond and just within the city of rural Ohio and the places where upstate New York forms the border with Canada the next country Here is racial in its knowledge and acknowledgment of the great geographic archetype the journey north yet the work's nature denies the closure of destination The poem's interest instead is in statement's of situation in the path traced by a moving point First published by Dalkey Archive Press in 1994 now available again The Presentable Art of Reading Absence Jay Wright,2008 The Presentable Art of Reading Absence takes as impulse the act of meditation in which the energetic relationship between a meditative body and its universe is not only the envisioning of absence by presence but also vision itself Here begins the revelation of a kiosk With occult emotionality and analytic brilliance Jay Wright has written the user's guide to evanescence I have become attuned to the disappearance of all things and of my self Talking David Antin,2001 If someone came up and started talking a poem at you how would you know it was a poem So begins David Antin's Talking a collection of writings that defy classification Combining a passion for storytelling and improvisation with a unique sensitivity to the relationship between verbal and written language Antin creates a work that is hilarious and intelligent making use of techniques of poetry fiction theater autobiography and cultural criticism Originally published in 1972 the four pieces collected here center on political social and artistic concerns that were both timely and ahead of their time In them we see Antin's real poetic achievement the creation of new artistic forms Gilbert Sorrentino, William Gaddis, Mary Caponegro, Margery Latimer John O'Brien,2001 Blue Pastoral Gilbert Sorrentino,2000 And so we meet our hero Serge Blue Gavotte a modern day Candide who quits his job mounts a piano atop a broken down pushcart and sets off with wife and child on a visionary quest across contemporary America in search of the Perfect Musical Phrase From the dismal plains of the Midwest to the technicolor sunsets of the Southwest Blue refuses to let financial troubles lecherous professors or the burdensome weight of his piano prevent him from reaching his final goal Dictionary of Italian-American Poets Ferdinando Alfonsi,1989 This book the first of its kind in the world studies a body of literature thus far almost unexplored After discussing such concepts as immigration and ethnicity and giving a definition of Italo American Poetry it presents roughly one thousand poets Following the criterion of inclusiveness known and unknown poets those who have published one or more collections as well as those whose works have appeared only in magazines have been listed A short bio a list of his her books and criticism have been given for each of them whenever available Iceland James Krusoe,2002 Paul falls in love with Emily a worker at the Institute when he goes to pick out a new organ The memory of their interlude stays with Paul through the rest of his life Theatre of Incest Alain Arias-Misson,2007 In normal everyday tones a story is told by the perpetrator of triple incest first with his mother as a child and a young man then with his daughter as he grows into mature manhood and finally with his sister in middle age This primeval fairytale burns with an icy passion as the narrator switches roles along with familial relationships The quasi metaphysical lucidity with which he pursues his odd fate is eerie particularly in light of his apparent innocence as to the perverse nature of his taboo attachments and the theatrical artifice with which he pursues them In the end his passionate desire is so earnest that the reader is left to wonder if he is truly a monster or an innocent who is directing whom Italian Stories Joseph Papaleo,2002 A collection of stories set in an Italian American neighborhood in the Bronx of the 1940s Bridge, Stories and Ideas Michael D Workman,2001-05 Aimee Bender Michael Martone Paul Maliszewski Mary Jo Bang Greg Purcell Archer Prewitt Katy Fischer Paul Hoover Todd Dills Paula Kamen Others American Novelists Since World War II James Richard Giles,Wanda H. Giles,1996 Contains biographical sketches of writers who either began writing novels after 1945 or have done their most important work since then Library Journal ,2001 Includes beginning Sept 15 1954 and on the 15th of each month Sept May a special section School library journal ISSN 0000 0035 called Junior libraries 1954 May 1961 Also issued separately Hedypthagetica Austryn Wainhouse,2007 A one eyed schlemiel named Dr Samuel Johnson not the Dictionary Johnson becomes the most famous prisoner in the mythical country of Gron The first and last sections of the novel are parts of a letter written by the unnamed official historian of Gron to his lover Aimee who stands high in the court of the Accuser Claude Maxime a crazed tyrant The Accuser has kept the state in perpetual war since his coup d tat 39 years before and subjects the homeland to any number of repressions The Publishers Weekly ,2000 Italian Signs, American Streets Fred L. Gardaphé,1996 In the first major critical reading of Italian American narrative literature in two decades Fred L Gardaphé presents an interpretive overview of Italian American literary history Examining works from the turn of the twentieth century to the present he develops a new perspective variously historical philosophical and cultural by which American writers of Italian descent can be read increasing the discursive power of an ethnic literature that has received too little serious critical attention Gardaphé draws on Vico s concept of history as well as the work of Gramsci to establish a culture specific approach to reading Italian American literature He begins his historical reading with narratives informed by oral traditions primarily autobiography and autobiographical fiction written by immigrants From these earliest social realist narratives Gardaphé traces the evolution of this literature through tales of the godfather and the mafia the reinvention of ethnicity in works by Helen Barolini Tina

DeRosa and Carole Maso the move beyond ethnicity in fiction by Don DeLillo and Gilbert Sorrentino to the short fiction of Mary Caponegro which points to a new direction in Italian American writing The result is both an ethnography of Italian American narrative and a model for reading the signs that mark the self fashioning inherent in literary and cultural production Italian Signs American Streets promises to become a landmark in the understanding of literature and culture produced by Italian Americans It will be of interest not only to students critics and scholars of this ethnic experience but also to those concerned with American literature in general and the place of immigrant and ethnic literatures within that wide framework Contemporary Novelists Noelle Watson,1991 Contains entries for each author with a biography a list of separately published books and an essay The Enamoured Knight Douglas H. Glover,2005 This book is filled with a great love for the art of writing and is a celebration of the act of reading Through the prism of the renowned Russian Formalist Viktor Shklovsky Douglas Glover provides a scrupulous reading of Cervantes s Don Quixote By showing us how Cervantes constructed his novel and how we as readers participate in his magical creation he opens the 400 year old Spanish masterpiece to a new generation of readers Glover seduces us with his stunning prose while making it possible for even the casual reader to understand and enjoy Cervantes s genius BOOK JACKET Forthcoming Books Rose Arny,2004

Chinese Letter Svetislav Basara,2004 Ordered by two mysterious men to write a statement of about 100 pages the narrator of Chinese Letter who s not sure of his name but calls himself Fritz faithfully records the bizarre occurrences of his daily life his absurd conversations with his mother who is abducted by slave traders his visits to his friend who works in the hospital s autopsy room and his sister s tumultuous marriage to the butcher s son to name a few Widely respected in Serbia the term Basarian has been coined to refer to his unique writing style reminiscent of the best of Samuel Beckett for its directness existential pondering and odd sense of humor
