Bluesprint Black British Columbian Literature And Orature:

Bluesprint Wayde Compton,2001 Bluesprint is a groundbreaking first time collection of the creative output of British Columbia's black citizens and includes an astonishing range of styles journal entries oral histories letters journalism poems stories screenplays and hip hop lyrics The Routledge Handbook of Black Canadian Literature Andrea A. Davis,Leslie Sanders,2024-12-09 The Routledge Handbook of Black Canadian Literature offers a comprehensive overview of the growing and increasingly significant field of Black Canadian literary studies Including historical and contemporary analysis this volume is an essential text that maps the field over the almost 200 years of its existence across a range of genres from slave narratives to prose fiction poetry theatre and dub and spoken word It presents Black Canadian literature as encompassing a diverse set of viewpoints approaches and practices touching every aspect of Canadian territory and life and as deeply influencing debates and understandings of Black peoples far beyond its borders This Handbook employs an interdisciplinary framework that incorporates literary historical geographical and cultural analysis This book comprising 32 chapters is organized into five sections that chart the literature's development into a recognizable canon trace Black literary geographies across Canada from east to west delineate the literature's various genres and expressive forms and honor the writers and thinkers who have influenced the growth of the field This volume's range of subject and plurality of perspectives provide an excellent resource for teachers researchers and students from multiple disciplines including Canadian studies and literature Caribbean studies global Black studies hemispheric studies diaspora studies history and cultural studies The History of Blacks in Canada George H. Junne,2003-03-30 This fascinating bibliography of source materials clearly demonstrates the significant roles blacks have played in the history and culture of Canada from its beginnings as well as their 400 year fight for equity and justice Organized by area of endeavor and by province the source materials detailed here reveal that blacks in Canada have created a rich diverse and complex legacy This volume lists resources that point to blacks history as soldiers prospectors educators cowboys homesteaders entertainers legislators athletes artists servants and writers The most comprehensive bibliography about blacks in Canada that has been published it is well organized to facilitate locating specific topics or people spanning black history Also included are newspapers and videos that add their own unique contribution Academicians researchers students and interested lay people will find an organized compilation of a vast number of primary and secondary sources about blacks in Canada Reference Sources for Canadian Literary Studies Joseph Jones,2005-01-01 Reference Sources for Canadian Literary Studies offers the first full scale bibliography of writing on and in the field of Canadian literary studies Approximately one thousand annotated entries are arranged by reference genre with sub groupings related to literary genre Soundin' Canaan Paul db Watkins,2025-01-21 Part exploration of a key group of Black Canadian poets part literary cultural and musical history Soundin Canaan demonstrates how music in Black Canadian poetry is not solely aesthetic but a form of social ethical and political expression Soundin Canaan refers to the code name often used for Canada during the Black migration to Canada. The book analyzes the contributions of key Black Canadian poets including their poetic styles and their performances. The book has several key objectives including recuperating the collision of the historical and the Biblically derived figure of Canaan the promised land of freedom and security for an African American population seeking to leave the shackles of slavery behind and the northern terminus of the underground railroad. Centering around the poetry of George Elliott Clarke Dionne Brand M NourbeSe Philip Wayde Compton and rapper K'naan it delves into how these poets draw inspiration from African American and Afro diasporic musical genres such as blues jazz reggae and dub hip hop and remix to reshape the notions of identity and citizenship. Soundin Canaan asks what does Canadian citizenship sound like especially when voiced by Black Canadian poets who embrace a fluid and multicultural form of citizenship that moves between local and global spaces much like music does. Using a DJ Methodology the author mixes in close readings of poetry music cultural and literary history as well as various interviews with the poets. The book includes an accompanying soundtrack to further enhance the reading experience. Listening to the poets in this book that is in listening closely to the poems sounds and musical samples they bring into the mix constitutes sonic citizenship. This co performative act of reading listening and sounding serves as a reminder of how citizens inhabit and negotiate life in Canada beyond the formal legal framework of the nation state.

Unsettling the Great White North Michele A. Johnson, Funké Aladejebi, 2022-01-27 An exhaustive volume of leading scholarship in the field of Black Canadian history. Unsettling the Great White North highlights the diverse experiences of persons of African descent within the chronicles of Canada's past. The book considers histories and theoretical framings within the disciplines of history, sociology, law and cultural and gender studies to chart the mechanisms of exclusion and marginalization in multicultural Canada and to situate Black Canadians as speakers and agents of their own lives. Working to interrupt the myth of benign whiteness that has been deeply implanted into the country's imagination, Unsettling the Great White North uncovers new narratives of Black life in Canada.

After Canaan Wayde Compton, 2011-05-10 Compton pushes us to look beneath the surface past those comforting tales of nationhood and racial solidarity to the more nebulous and ever shifting truth. This is a brilliant and original work that should be mandatory reading for any student of race and history. Danzy Senna author of Caucasia After Canaan the first nonfiction book by acclaimed African Canadian poet Wayde Compton repositions the North American discussion of race in the wake of the tumultuous twentieth century. Written from the perspective of someone who was born and lives outside of African American culture it riffs on the concept of Canada as a promised land or Canaan encoded in African American myth and song since the days of slavery. These varied essays steeped in a kind of history rarely written about explore the language of racial misrecognition also known as passing the failure of urban renewal humor as a counterweight to official multiculturalism the poetics of hip hop turntablism and the impact of the Obama phenomenon on the way we speak about race itself. Compton marks the passing of old modes of antiracism and multiculturalism and points toward what may or may not be a post racial future but will without doubt be a brave new world of cultural perception After Canaan is a brilliant and thoughtful consideration of African North American culture as it attempts to redefine itself in the Obama era

The Crossroads of Music and Literature Kelly Baron, Andrew DuBois, 2025-11-27 A collection of fourteen original essays taking a fresh approach to how music plays a crucial role in literary texts and to the ways in which music is itself a work of literature

Across Currents: Connections Between Atlantic and (Trans)Pacific Studies Nicole

Poppenhagen, Jens Temmen, 2020-04-28 This book explores connections between Atlantic studies and trans Pacific studies including the potential discursive topical and historical overlaps of the two fields It carves out mutual concerns and theoretical affinities but also divergent approaches and differences While acknowledging the fundamental differences that characterize the individual fields the essays in this volume examine how both Atlantic and trans Pacific studies are part of global currents of political activist artistic economic and academic exchange This volume brings together voices from Europe North America and the Pacific with disciplinary backgrounds in history culture and literature Directed at scholars with a background in trans Pacific and or Atlantic studies this collection is an attempt to stimulate exchange between the two fields to intensify their impact within the current transnational focus of literary and cultural studies to encourage the questioning of well mapped paths of inquiry and to outline new theoretical approaches to both fields This book was originally published as a special issue of the journal Atlantic Studies
