Aging In Rural Places Programs Policies And Professional Practice:

Aging in Rural Places Elaine Jurkowski, 2014-09-08 Research documents that rural elders are poorer live in less adequate housing and have far fewer health and service options available to them than their urban counterparts yet there is a critical lack of current and detailed information on the problems facing rural elders and on the professional practices that serve this population This text fills this gap by introducing readers to rural areas and their residents and discussing the issues programs and policies designed to meet their needs Through a multidisciplinary lens it examines and defines specific competencies required for successful work with older adults and their families in these communities The text presents a research driven competency based approach for the health and human service professionals who work with older rural residents It discusses both the problems facing older adults and their families and evidence based solutions regarding policy and best practices Key issues examined include health and wellness transportation housing long term care income employment and retirement along with the needs of special populations ethnic minorities immigrants and the LGBT population Case examples reinforce an interdisciplinary model that addresses practice with rural elders that encompasses professional competencies values and ethics and the roles of a spectrum of health and human service professionals The text also examines current policies affecting health and social services to rural elders and recommendations for policy change to build an effective health and human service workforce in rural communities In addition the text provides discussion questions PowerPoint slides a test question bank and suggested activities and exercises Key Features Fills a vacuum regarding information on health and social services for rural elders Provides current and comprehensive knowledge about issues besetting this population and programs and policies designed to meet their needs Examines and defines specific competencies required for effective health and social services Based on a research driven competency based interdisciplinary approach to policy and best practice

Aging and Diversity Lisa Wagner, Chandra M Mehrotra, Man Guo, 2025-09-22 Aging and diversity intersect in important ways as individuals from different backgrounds experience aging through distinct lenses shaped by traditions values and beliefs As the older population in the United States is becoming more diverse it is important to understand the characteristics the potential and the needs of this population In this new and fully revised edition of Aging and Diversity Lisa S Wagner Chandra Mehrotra and Man Guo address key topics in diversity and aging discussing how the aging experience is affected by not only race and ethnicity but also gender religious affiliation socioeconomic status rural urban community location and sexual orientation and gender identity Taking this broad view of human diversity allows the authors to convey some of the rich complexities facing aging populations complexities that provide both challenges to meet the needs of a diverse population of elders and opportunities to learn how to live in a pluralistic society Wagner Mehrotra and Guo present up to date knowledge and scholarship about aging and diversity in a way that engages readers in active learning placing ongoing emphasis on developing readers knowledge and skills fostering higher order thinking and encouraging exploration of personal values and attitudes

Routledge International Handbook of Rural Studies Mark Shucksmith, David L. Brown, 2016-05-20 Rural societies around the world are changing in fundamental ways both at their own initiative and in response to external forces The Routledge International Handbook of Rural Studies examines the organisation and transformation of rural society in more developed regions of the world taking an interdisciplinary and problem focused approach Written by leading social scientists from many countries it addresses emerging issues and challenges in innovative and provocative ways to inform future policy This volume is organised around eight emerging social economic and environmental challenges Demographic change Economic transformations Food systems and land Environment and resources Changing configurations of gender and rural society Social and economic equality Social dynamics and institutional capacity Power and governance Cross cutting these challenges are the growing interdependence of rural and urban the rise in inequality within and between places the impact of fiscal crisis on rural societies neoliberalism power and agency and rural areas as potential sites of resistance The Routledge International Handbook of Rural Studies is required reading for anyone concerned with the future of rural areas

The Routledge Handbook of Comparative Rural Policy Matteo Vittuari, John Devlin, Marco Pagani, Thomas G. Johnson, 2019-10-16 This volume represents the result of almost two decades of trans Atlantic collaborative development of a policy research paradigm the International Comparative Rural Policy Studies program Over this period dozens of scientists from different disciplines but with a common interest in rural issues and policy have collaboratively studied the policies in North America Europe and other parts of the world A core element of the book is the idea and practice of comparative research and analysis what can be learned from comparisons how and why policies vary in different contexts and what lessons might or might not be transferable across borders It provides skills for the use of comparative methods as important tools to analyze the functioning of strategies and specific policy interventions in different contexts and a holistic approach for the management of resources in rural regions It promotes innovation as a tool to valorize endogenous resources and empower local communities and offers case studies of rural policy in specific contexts The book largely adopts a territorial approach to rural policy This means the book is more interested in rural regions their people and economies and in the policies that affect them than in rural sectors and sectoral policies per se The audience of the book is by definition international and includes students attending courses in agricultural and rural policy rural and regional studies and natural resource management lecturers seeking course material and case studies to present to their students in any of the courses listed above professionals working in the field of rural policy policy makers and civil servants at different levels seeking tools to better understand rural policy both at the local and global scale and to better recognize and comprehend how to transfer best practices

Aging and Diversity Ph.D. Chandra Mehrotra, Lisa Smith Wagner, 2018-09-03 As the older population in the United States is becoming more racially and ethnically diverse it is important to understand the characteristics the potential and the needs of this population In this new and fully revised edition of Aging and Diversity Chandra Mehrotra and Lisa Wagner address key topics in diversity and aging discussing how the aging experience is affected by not only race and ethnicity but also gender religious affiliation social class rural urban community location and sexual orientation and gender identity Taking this broad view of human diversity allows the authors to convey some of the rich complexities facing our aging population complexities that provide both challenges to meet the needs of a diverse population of elders and opportunities to learn how to live in a pluralistic society Mehrotra and Wagner present up to date knowledge and scholarship about aging and diversity in a way that engages readers in active learning placing ongoing emphasis on developing readers knowledge and skills fostering higher order thinking and encouraging exploration of personal values and attitudes
