America First Lawton B. Evans, 2017-09-08 Excerpt from America First One Hundred Stories From Our Own History When children advance beyond the nursery age no story is so wonderful as a true story Fiction to them is never as appealing as fact I have often been faced with the inquiry whether or not a story is a true one The look of gratification when told that it actually happened was most satisfying to me as a story teller The nearer a story is to the life and traditions of the child the more eagerly it is attended True stories about our own people about our neighbors and friends and about our own country at large are more interesting than true stories of remote places and people We naturally are interested in our own affairs and the nearer they are to us the greater the interest we feel About the Publisher Forgotten Books publishes hundreds of thousands of rare and classic books Find more at www.forgottenbooks.com This book is a reproduction of an important historical work Forgotten Books uses state of the art technology to digitally reconstruct the work preserving the original format whilst repairing imperfections present in the aged copy In rare cases an imperfection in the original such as a blemish or missing page may be replicated in our edition We do however repair the vast majority of imperfections successfully any imperfections that remain are intentionally left to preserve the state of such historical works The Continuum

Edward Eggleston, 2015-07-19 Excerpt from Stories of Great Americans For Little Americans The primary aim of this book is to furnish the little learner reading matter that will excite his attention and give him pleasure and thus make lighter the difficult task of learning to read The ruggedness of this task has often been increased by the use of disconnected sentences or lessons as dry and uninteresting as finger exercises on the piano It is a sign of promise that the demand for reading matter of interest to the child has come from teachers I have endeavored to meet this requirement in the following stories As far as possible the words chosen have been such as are not difficult to the little reader either from their length or their unfamiliarity The sentences and paragraphs are short Learning to read is like climbing a steep hill and it is a great relief to the panting child to find frequent breathing places It is one of the purposes of these stories to make the mind of the pupil familiar with some of the leading figures in the history of our country by means of personal anecdote Some of the stories are those that every American child ought to know because they have become a kind of national folklore Such for example are Putnam and the Wolf and the story of Franklin s Whistle About the Publisher Forgotten Books publishes hundreds of thousands of rare and classic books Find more at www.forgottenbooks.com This book is a reproduction of an important historical work Forgotten Books uses state of the art technology to digitally reconstruct the work preserving the original format whilst repairing imperfections present in the aged copy In rare cases an imperfection in the original such as a blemish or missing page may be replicated in our edition We do however repair the vast majority of imperfections successfully any imperfections that remain are intentionally left to preserve the state of such historical works The American School Board Journal William George Bruce, William Conrad Bruce, 1898 Library Occurrent , 1926 Index to newspapers in each no beginning with Mar 1908 The Congregationalist , 1919 Commonweal , 1925 School , 1905 The Annual American Catalog, 1900-1909 , 1909 The Annual American Catalog, 1908 , 1909
