The History of Civilization, Vol. 1 of 7 (Classic Reprint) Amos Dean,2016-10-06 Excerpt from The History of Civilization Vol 1 of 7 To fully comprehend the nature of a work to judge of it fairly we should be to some extent in sympathy with its author To appreciate his labors we should know the circumstances in which he was placed the disadvantages he had to overcome the obstacles he had to surmount the positions he filled his modes of thought his methods of study his fitness for authorship in temperament and character These we may gather in part from his book but only in part The writer of history deals with the acts of the outer world rather than with his inner self V He must therefore exhibit somewhat of the nature and tendency of his mind his Opinions and judgment He must breathe into it much of his own character yet from such imperfect gleanings we can form but a limited conception of the man It will not therefore be deemed out of taste to give a short sketch of the life of Prof Amos Dean the author of the present work By his many friends such a narration will be welcomed while it may not be devoid of interest to the general reader and student About the Publisher Forgotten Books publishes hundreds of thousands of rare and classic books Find more at www.forgottenbooks.com This book is a reproduction of an important historical work Forgotten Books uses state of the art technology to digitally reconstruct the work preserving the original format whilst repairing imperfections present in the aged copy In rare cases an imperfection in the original such as a blemish or missing page may be replicated in our edition We do however repair the vast majority of imperfections successfully any imperfections that remain are intentionally left to preserve the state of such historical works

The New Basis of Civilization (Classic Reprint) Simon Nelson Patten,2017-11-03 Excerpt from The New Basis of Civilization The volume by Professor Patten makes an admirable introduction to such a series It interprets in a specially suggestive and stimulating way the meaning and significance of recent social changes with which the practical social worker is so actively engaged and to which he is so close in point of time and contact that he may well fail to secure for himself the stimulus of the larger outlook upon the events in which he is a participant About the Publisher Forgotten Books publishes hundreds of thousands of rare and classic books Find more at www.forgottenbooks.com This book is a reproduction of an important historical work Forgotten Books uses state of the art technology to digitally reconstruct the work preserving the original format whilst repairing imperfections present in the aged copy In rare cases an imperfection in the original such as a blemish or missing page may be replicated in our edition We do however repair the vast majority of imperfections successfully any imperfections that remain are intentionally left to preserve the state of such historical works

History of Civilization, Being a Course of Lectures on the Origin and Development of the Main Institutions of Mankind (Classic Reprint) Emil Reich, 2015-07-01 Excerpt from History of Civilization Being a Course of Lectures on the Origin and Development of the Main Institutions of Mankind By permission of the Board of Trustees and of the Faculty of the University of Cincinnati the author of the present book commenced to deliver a public course of lectures on the History of Civilization at the lecture hall of said University The first lecture was given on the 13th of November 1886 and with a few interruptions the course was continued on every Saturday The interest of the general public in the course increased so rapidly that it became a mere matter of necessity to rent a larger hall and thus after the fourteenth lecture the course was continued at the spacious hall of the Scottish Rite Church As a further manifestation of the unabating interest of the public the author was most urgently requested by the most competent people of the city to publish his lectures in book form A list of subscriptions more than sufficient to cover the considerable expenses of the publication was filled in very short time and the present book is a faithful copy of the lectures as delivered in the course In the circular submitted to subscribers the book was announced to extend to 400 pages the book however numbers over 550 pages and the author cherishes the belief that the additional 150 pages will not prove unwelcome to the reader The highly finished cuts have been selected and furnished by Mr Otto Reich of Cincinnati The course itself did not comprise an elaborate investigation into the institutions of modern times and the book therefore does not devote special chapters to the discussion of the social and political development of the last three centuries In every single lecture of the book however constant and occasionally very exhaustive reference is taken to institutions of modern countries more especially to those of the United
