The Man Called Brown Condor Thomas E. Simmons, 2012-12-18 Robinson's lifelong triumph over adversity belongs to the greatest of American success stories Peter Hannaford Washington Times In this gripping never before told tale biographer Thomas E Simmons brings to life the true story of John C Robinson who rose from fraught and humble beginnings as a black child in segregated Mississippi to outstanding success He became a pilot and an expert in building and assembling his own working aircraft he also helped to establish a school of aviation at the Tuskegee Institute there would have been no Tuskegee Airmen without him and his courageous wartime service in Ethiopia during the Italian invasion in 1935 won him international fame During Robinson's service to Ethiopia he took to the air to combat the first Fascist invasion of what would become World War II This remarkable hero may have been the first American to oppose Fascism in combat When Ethiopia was freed by British troops during World War II Haile Selassie asked Robinson to return to Ethiopia to help reestablish the Ethiopian Air Force For Robinson and the five men he picked to go with him just getting to Ethiopia in wartime 1944 was an adventure in and of itself Featuring thirty five black and white photographs and based on twenty three years worth of original research when very little information on this remarkable American hero was available The Man Called Brown Condor is more than just a biography of an unfairly forgotten African American pilot this book provides insight on racial conditions in the first half of the twentieth century and illustrates the political intrigue within a League of Nations afraid to face the rise of Fascism Skyhorse Publishing along with our Arcade Good Books Sports Publishing and Yucca imprints is proud to publish a broad range of biographies autobiographies and memoirs Our list includes biographies on well known historical figures like Benjamin Franklin Nelson Mandela and Alexander Graham Bell as well as villains from history such as Heinrich Himmler John Wayne Gacy and O J Simpson We have also published survivor stories of World War II memoirs about overcoming adversity first hand tales of adventure and much more While not every title we publish becomes a New York Times bestseller or a national bestseller we are committed to books on subjects that are sometimes overlooked and to authors whose work might not otherwise find a home

No Promise for Tomorrow Thomas E. Simmons, 2022-11-22 In the third volume of the Quinn family saga Ansel Quinn is caught in an international scandal with reverberations across two world wars In 1916 the world waits with bated breath to see if the United States will enter the Great War raging in Europe Meanwhile President Wilson campaigns for reelection on his record of keeping America out of the fray Caught in the middle is Maj Ansel Quinn of Mississippi assigned to the French army headquarters in Paris as a neutral observer At home Ansel's wife Isabel has been left to manage the family's cotton plantation in Mississippi as well as their sugar plantation in Cuba It is a trial to be without her husband but only the beginning of the hardships she will face When Ansel is wounded on the frontlines of the Somme far from where any neutral observer should be it sets off international intrigue that could change the course of history In No Promise for Tomorrow the Quinn family struggles across the decades between World War I and World War II a period that includes the influenza epidemic the Roaring Twenties prohibition and the Great Depression American Wings Sherri L. Smith, Elizabeth Wein, 2025-01-14 From the acclaimed author of Flygirl and the bestselling author of Code Name Verity comes the thrilling and inspiring true story of the desegregation of the skies This beautiful and brilliant history of not only what it means to be Black and dream of flying but to against every odd do so completely blew me away Jacqueline Woodson National Book Award Winner for Brown Girl Dreaming In the years between World War I and World War II aviation fever was everywhere including among Black Americans But what hope did a Black person have of learning to fly in a country constricted by prejudice and Jim Crow laws where Black aviators like Bessie Coleman had to move to France to earn their wings American Wings follows a group of determined Black Americans Cornelius Coffey and Johnny Robinson skilled auto mechanics Janet Harmon Bragg a nurse and Willa Brown a teacher and social worker Together they created a flying club and built their own airfield south of Chicago As the U S hurtled toward World War II they established a school to train new pilots teaching both Black and white students together and proving in a time when the U S military was still segregated that successful integration was possible Featuring rare historical photographs American Wings brings to light a hidden history of pioneering Black men and women who with grit and resilience battled powerful odds for an equal share of the sky

Mussolini, Mustard Gas and the Fascist Way of War Charles Stephenson, 2024-04-18 An examination of the first conflict to see the large scale systematic deployment of chemical weaponry since the end of World War I In early October 1935 and without any declaration of war some two hundred thousand men comprising soldiers and airmen of the Italian armed forces Fascist Blackshirt Militia Eritrean ascari and Somali dubats invaded the independent state of Ethiopia Abyssinia It was an operation entirely of choice the chooser being Il Duce Benito Mussolini The resultant conflict is often described as a colonial war while it was certainly launched with the intent of turning Ethiopia into an Italian possession it was in fact a war of aggression against an independent sovereign state with membership of the League of Nations A state that had according to one of its nineteenth century rulers been for fourteen centuries a Christian island in a sea of pagans The swiftness of the Italian victory resulted from their possession and ruthless use of technology most particularly aircraft mustard gas and motorisation mechanisation Since they were fighting an enemy who possessed none of these things then they were able to wage indeed inaugurate what the prominent military theorist JFC Fuller dubbed totalitarian warfare or as it became known a few years later total war This he opined was the Fascist the scientific way of making war In his considered view the Fascist Army that waged it was a scientific military instrument This book examines that campaign in military and political terms

Prevail Jeff Pearce, 2017-07-04 It was the war that changed everything and yet it s been mostly forgotten in 1935 Italy invaded Ethiopia It dominated newspaper headlines and newsreels It inspired mass marches in Harlem a play on Broadway and independence movements in Africa As the British Navy sailed into the Mediterranean for a white knuckle showdown with Italian ships riots broke out in major cities all over the United States Italian planes dropped poison gas on Ethiopian troops bombed Red Cross hospitals and committed atrocities that were never deemed worthy of a war crimes tribunal But unlike the many other depressing tales of Africa that crowd book shelves this is a gripping thriller a rousing tale of real life heroism in which the Ethiopians come back from near destruction and win Tunnelling through archive records tracking down survivors still alive today and uncovering never before seen photos Jeff Pearce recreates a remarkable era and reveals astonishing new findings He shows how the British Foreign Office abandoned the Ethiopians to their fate while Franklin Roosevelt had an ambitious peace plan that could have changed the course of world history had Chamberlain not blocked him with his policy on Ethiopia And Pearce shows how modern propaganda techniques the post war African world and modern peace movements all were influenced by this crucial conflict a war in Africa that truly changed the world Skyhorse Publishing as well as our Arcade imprint are proud to publish a broad range of books for readers interested in history books about World War II the Third Reich Hitler and his henchmen the JFK assassination conspiracies the American Civil War the American Revolution gladiators Vikings ancient Rome medieval times the old West and much more While not every title we publish becomes a New York Times bestseller or a national bestseller we are committed to books on subjects that are sometimes overlooked and to authors whose work might not otherwise find a home     The Condor ,1910     Derelicts James Sprunt,1920

Kitchener's Lost Boys John Oakes,2009 As many as 250 000 underage boys found themselves fighting in World War I and over half would never return home This is their story delving into the complex history of Britain s youngest Great War recruits Despite the rule of being 18 years old to enlist and 19 to serve overseas many young boys were illegally conscripted This history discusses the political reasons for underage conscripts focuses on the recruitment crisis of 1914 and explores both why boys joined and what their experiences were     The Rural New-Yorker ,1892     The Saturday Evening Post ,1926     The Republic ,1884     The Draper's Record ,1890     The American Robert Ellis Thompson,Wharton Barker,1884     Everybody's ,1928     Everybody's Magazine ,1928     The Friend ,1885     Encyclopedia of Religious Knowledge John Newton Brown,George Palmer Tyler,1876     Chamber's Journal of Popular Literature, Science and Arts ,1875     Chambers's Edinburgh journal, conducted by W. Chambers. [Continued as] Chambers's Journal of popular literature, science and arts Chambers's journal,1875     Pamphlets on Forestry. Fish and Game ,1915
