And Memory Twenty First Century Perspectives Humanities:

Memory in the Twenty-First Century Sebastian Groes, 2016-03-29 This book maps and analyses the changing state of memory at the start of the twenty first century in essays written by scientists scholars and writers It recontextualises memory by investigating the impact of new conditions such as the digital revolution climate change and an ageing population on our world Planetary Memory in Contemporary American Fiction Lucy Bond, Ben De Bruyn, Jessica Rapson, 2019-10-23 This book considers the ways in which contemporary American fiction seeks to imagine a mode of planetary memory able to address the scalar and systemic complexities of the Anthropocene the epoch in which the combined activity of the human species has become a geological force in its own right Authors examine the recent emergence of a literary and cultural imaginary of planetary memory an imaginary which attempts to give form to the complex interrelations between human and non human worlds between local national and global concerns and perhaps most importantly between historical and geological pasts presents and futures Chapters highlight distinct regions and landscapes of the US from the Appalachians to the South West the Rust Belt New York City Alaska New Orleans and the Rocky Mountains in order to examine how the ecological economic and historical specificity of these environments is underpinned by their implication on networks of planetary significance and scope Overall the collection aims to study develop and recognise new models of cultural memory and anxious anticipation as they emerge and evolve thus opening new conversations about practices of remembering and remembrance on an increasingly fragile planet This book was originally published as a special issue of Textual Practice

Mobility, Memory and the Lifecourse in Twentieth-Century Literature and Culture Lynne Pearce, 2019-08-09 This book explores the formative role of mobilities in the production of our close relationships proposing that the tracks both literal and figurative we lay down in the process play a crucial role in generating and sustaining intimacy Working with diaries journals and literary texts from the mid to late twentieth century the book pursues this thesis through three phases of the lifecourse courtship broadly defined the middle years of long term relationships and bereavement Building upon the author s recent research on automobility the text s case studies reveal the crucial role played by many different types of transport including walking in defining our most enduring relationships Conceptually the book draws upon the writings of the philosopher Henri Bergson the anthropologist Tim Ingold and the geographer David Seamon engaging with topical debates in cultural and emotional geography especially work on landscape memory and mourning mobilities studies and critical love studies

The Role of Agency and Memory in Historical Understanding Gordon P. Andrews, Yosay D. Wangdi, 2017-05-11 This book the first in a series entitled Historical and Pedagogical Issues Insights from the Great Lakes History Conference addresses historical and pedagogical issues It explores the agency of historical actors tied to larger movements demonstrating the efficacy and power of individuals to act with historical impact It also describes the nuanced role of memory often neglected in larger national or global social movements This volume explores these powerful themes through a broad range of topics including the research and pedagogy of revolution reform and rebellion as they are applied to race ethnicity political movements labour reconciliation memory and moral responsibility The book will interest researchers that have an interest in both or either history and pedagogy Ritual Civilization and Mythological Coding Qicui Tang,2020-07-18 This book places Li Ji the Book of Rites back in the overall context of books rites and its research history drawing on the interrelations between myth ritual and materialized symbols to do so Further it employs the double perspectives of books and rites to explore the sources and symbols of the capping ceremony rites of passage decode the prototypes of Miao and Ming Tang and restore the discourse patterns of people of five directions The book subsequently investigates the formation and function of the Yue Ling calendar and disaster ritual so as to reveal the human cognitive encoding and metalanguage of ritual behavior involved In the process it demonstrates that Li Ji its textual memories archaeological remains and traditional ceremony narratives are all subject to the latent myth coding mechanism in China's cultural system while the compilation and materialized remains are merely forms of ritual refactoring interpretation and exhibition used when authority seeks the aid of ritual civilization to strengthen its legitimacy and maintain the social order New Worlds from Old Texts Elton Thomas Edward Barker,Stefan Bouzarovski,C. B. R. Pelling,Leif Isaksen,2016 Written by a highly interdisciplinary range of contributors New Worlds from Old Texts explores ancient Greek perceptions of space and how they may have differed from the modern cartographic view
