Roberts, 2025-09-08 This four volume encyclopedia set is organized to allow the reader to explore gender and politics from an updated interdisciplinary intersectional and global perspective The organization format will be an A Z approach of approximately 500 600 entries with entries ranging in word count from 1 500 3 000 words with some entries on foundational topics at around 5 000 Coverage will examine both the role gender plays within the realm of politics political participation leadership etc as well as policies that are based in gender abortion and reproductive policies transgender rights etc Foundational topics will include entries such as International Security and Gender which will introduce gender and war human trafficking gender and militarism and women and terrorism and International Relations and Gender which will introduce topics such as gender mainstreaming the Convention on the Elimination of All Forms of Discrimination Against Women CEDAW and eco feminism A Comparative Politics foundational entry will focus on research areas surrounding political representation and participation legislative processes and law such as gender quotas gender gap in political participation and leadership intersectionality and barriers in representation and leadership Ni Unos Menos Not One Less Movement recent significant activist movements and transgender specific law Concepts connected to feminist and queer theory as applied in regional studies will also be covered For example marianismo or the connection between Catholicism and gender roles in Latin American and Latinx communities Asian American and Pacific Islander AAPI voters and political mobilization and LGBTQIA leaders and social movements will be included This encyclopedia will be essential for any undergraduate or graduate course on gender studies in gender studies programs as well as sociology political science history or other related programs disciplines gender and politics international relations and gender or area specific courses such as Gender and Latin American Politics or Gender and African Studies    International Disability Rights Advocacy Daniel Pateisky, 2021-03-23 This book provides insight into the globally interlinked disability rights community and its political efforts today By analysing what disability rights activism contributes to a global power apparatus of disability related knowledge it demonstrates how disability advocacy influences the way we categorise classify distribute manipulate and therefore transform knowledge By unpacking the mutually constitutive relations between practical moral knowledge of international disability advocates and formal disability rights norms that are codified in international treaties such as the UN Convention on the Rights of Persons with Disabilities CRPD the author shows that the disability rights movement is largely critical of statements that attempt to streamline it At the same time cross cultural disability rights advocacy requires images of uniformity to stabilise its global legitimacy among international stakeholders and retain a common meta code that visibly identifies its means and aims As an epistemic community disability rights advocates simultaneously rely on and contest the authority of international human rights infrastructure and its language Proving that disability rights advocates contribute immensely to a global culture that standardises what is considered morally and legally right and wrong thereby shaping the human body and the body politic this book will be of interest to all scholars and students of critical disability studies

Disability & the Politics of Education Susan Lynn Gabel,Scot

Danforth,2008 Disability and the Politics of Education An International Reader is a rich resource that deals comprehensively with the many aspects of the complex topic of disability studies in education For nearly two decades global attention has been given to education as a human right through global initiatives such as Education for All EFA and the Salamanca Statement Yet according to UNESCO reaching the goals of EFA remains one of the most daunting challenges facing the global community Today millions of the world s disabled children cannot obtain a basic childhood education particularly in countries with limited resources Even in the wealthiest countries many disabled children and youth are educationally segregated from the nondisabled particularly if they are labeled with significant cognitive impairment International agencies such as the United Nations and the World Bank have generated funds for educational development but unfortunately these funds are administered with the assumption that west is best thereby urging developing countries to mimic educational policies in the United States and the United Kingdom in order to prove their aid worthiness This McDonaldization of education reproduces the labeling resource allocation and social dynamics long criticized in disability studies The authors in this volume explore these subjects and other complexities of disability and the politics of education In doing so they demonstrate the importance and usefulness of international perspectives and comparative approaches
