Becoming A Translator An Accelerated Course:

Becoming a Translator Douglas Robinson, 1997 Annotation This innovative book integrates translation theory and the practical skills required by the working translator     A Handbook for Translator Trainers Dorothy Kelly, 2014-04-23 The community of translator trainers is growing constantly as new courses are set up in diverse contexts throughout the world After a brief overview of current approaches to translator training this book offers practical guidance to sound training practices in different contexts Given the very wide variety of backgrounds translator trainers come from the text aims to be equally of use to language teachers new to translation to professional translators new to teaching or training to recent graduates in translation intending to embark on academic careers in translation studies and to more experienced trainers wishing to reflect on their activity or to train new trainers For that reason no specific prior knowledge or experience of training is taken for granted A systematic approach to curriculum and syllabus design is adopted guiding readers from the writing of learning outcomes or objectives through to the design of teaching and learning activities to the assessment of learning and course evaluation all this applied throughout in detail to the field of translation Chapters contain exercises and activities designed to promote reflection on practice and to help trainers to develop their teaching skills as well as their own course material These activities are suitable both for self learners and for groups on trainer training and staff development courses     The Dao of Translation Douglas Robinson, 2015-06-12 The Dao of Translation sets up an East West dialogue on the nature of language and translation and specifically on the unknown forces that shape the act of translation To that end it mobilizes two radically different readings of the Daodejing formerly romanized as the Tao Te Ching the traditional mystical reading according to which the Dao is a mysterious force that cannot be known and a more recent reading put forward by Sinologists Roger T Ames and David L Hall to the effect that the Dao is simply the way things happen Key to Ames and Hall's reading is that what makes the Dao seem both powerful and mysterious is that it channels habit into action or what the author calls social ecologies or icoses The author puts Daoism and ancient Confucianism into dialogue with nineteenth century Western theorists of the sign Charles Sanders Peirce and Ferdinand de Saussure and their followers in order to develop an icotic understanding of the tensions between habit and surprise in the activity of translating The Dao of Translation will interest linguists and translation scholars This book will also engage researchers of ancient Chinese philosophy and provide Western scholars with a thought provoking cross examination of Eastern and Western perspectives

Translation and Globalization Michael Cronin, 2013-05-13 Translation and Globalization is essential reading for anyone with an interest in translation or a concern for the future of our world's languages and cultures This is a critical exploration of the ways in which radical changes to the world economy have affected contemporary translation The Internet new technology machine translation and the emergence of a worldwide multi million dollar translation industry have dramatically altered the complex relationship between translators language and power In this book Michael Cronin looks at the changing geography of translation practice and offers new ways of understanding the role of the translator in globalized societies and economies Drawing on examples and case studies from Europe Africa Asia and the Americas the author argues that translation is central to debates about language and cultural identity and shows why consideration of the role of translation and translators is a necessary part of safeguarding and promoting linguistic and cultural diversity Critical Translation Studies Douglas Robinson, 2017-02-17 This book offers an introduction for Translation Studies TS scholars to Critical Translation Studies CTS a cultural studies approach to the study of translation spearheaded by Sakai Naoki and Lydia H Liu with an implicit focus on translation as a social practice shaped by power relations in society The central claim in CTS is that translators help condition what TS scholars take to be the primal scene of translation two languages two language communities with the translator as mediator According to Sakai intralingual translation is primal we are all foreigners to each other making every address to another heterolingual thus a form of translation and it is the order that these acts of translation bring to communication that begins to generate the two separate languages scenario CTS is dedicated to the historicization of the social relations that create that scenario In three sets of Critical Theses on Translation the book outlines and explains and partly critiques the CTS approach in five interspersed chapters the book delves more deeply into CTS with an eye to making it do work that will be useful to TS scholars Routledge Encyclopedia of Translation Studies Mona Baker, Gabriela Saldanha, 2009-03-04 Praise for the previous edition of the Encyclopedia of Translation Studies Translation has long deserved this sort of treatment Appropriate for any college or university library supporting a program in linguistics this is vital in those institutions that train students to become translators Rettig on Reference Congratulations should be given to Mona Baker for undertaking such a mammoth task and successfully pulling it off It will certainly be an essential reference book and starting point for anyone interested in translation studies ITI Bulletin This excellent volume is to be commended for bringing together some of its most recent research It provides a series of extremely useful short histories quite unlike anything that can be found elsewhere University teachers will find it invaluable for preparing seminars and it will be widely used by students The Times Higher Education Supplement a pioneering work of reference Perspectives on Translation The Routledge Encyclopedia of Translation Studies has been the standard reference in the field since it first appeared in 1998 The second extensively revised and extended edition brings this unique resource up to date and offers a thorough critical and authoritative account of one of the fastest growing disciplines in the humanities The Encyclopedia is divided into two parts and alphabetically ordered for ease of reference Part One General covers the conceptual framework and core concerns of the discipline Categories of entries include central issues in translation theory e g equivalence translatability unit of translation key concepts e g culture norms ethics ideology shifts quality approaches to translation and interpreting e g sociological linguistic functionalist types of translation e g literary audiovisual scientific and technical types of interpreting e g signed language dialogue court New additions in this section include entries on globalisation mobility localization gender and sexuality censorship comics advertising and retranslation among many others Part Two History and Traditions covers the history of translation in major linguistic and cultural communities It is arranged alphabetically by linguistic region There are entries on a wide range of languages which include Russian French Arabic Japanese Chinese and Finnish and regions including Brazil Canada and India Many of the entries in this section are based on hitherto unpublished research This section includes one new entry Southeast Asian tradition Drawing on the expertise of over 90 contributors from 30 countries and an international panel of consultant editors this volume offers a comprehensive overview of translation studies as an academic discipline and anticipates new directions in the field The contributors examine various forms of translation and interpreting as they are practised by professionals today in addition to research topics theoretical issues and the history of translation in various parts of the world With key terms defined and discussed in context a full index extensive cross references diagrams and a full bibliography the Routledge Encyclopedia of Translation Studies is an invaluable reference work for all students and teachers of translation interpreting and literary and social theory Mona Baker is Professor of Translation Studies at the University of Manchester UK She is co founder and editorial director of St Jerome Publishing a small press specializing in translation studies and cross cultural communication Apart from numerous papers in scholarly journals and collected volumes she is author of In Other Words A Coursebook on Translation Routledge 1992 Translation and Conflict A Narrative Account 2006 and Founding Editor of The Translator Studies in Intercultural Communication 1995 a refereed international journal published by St Jerome since 1995 She is also co Vice President of the International Association of Translation and Intercultural Studies IATIS Gabriela Saldanha is Lecturer in Translation Studies at the University of Birmingham UK She is founding editor with Marion Winters and current member of the editorial board of New Voices in Translation Studies a refereed online journal of the International Association of Translation and Intercultural Studies and co editor with Federico Zanettin of Translation Studies Abstracts and Bibliography of Translation Studies
