Handbook of Second and Foreign Language Writing Rosa M. Manchón,Paul Kei Matsuda,2016-09-12 The Handbook of Second and Foreign Language Writing is an authoritative reference compendium of the theory and research on second and foreign language writing that can be of value to researchers professionals and graduate students It is intended both as a retrospective critical reflection that can situate research on L2 writing in its historical context and provide a state of the art view of past achievements and as a prospective critical analysis of what lies ahead in terms of theory research and applications Accordingly the Handbook aims to provide i foundational information on the emergence and subsequent evolution of the field ii state of the art surveys of available theoretical and research basic and applied insights iii overviews of research methods in L2 writing research iv critical reflections on future developments and iv explorations of existing and emerging disciplinary interfaces with other fields of inquiry

Online Teaching and Learning

Carla Meskill,2013-08-15 Online Teaching and Learning shows how learning through the internet depends on complex human interactions for success The text uses sociocultural theory as its foundational stance to empirically examine the dynamics of these interactions It seeks to understand meaning making in all of its social linguistic and cultural complexity Each chapter examines how it is that culturally and historically situated meanings get negotiated through social mediation in online instructional venues It extends the ways we think and talk about online teaching and learning

Changing Spaces

Arlene Archer,Rose Richards,2011-07-01 Changing Spaces makes a forceful and credible case for the role of writing centres in engaging with students staff and institutional structures in understanding issues of access from a social perspective This is a specialist book for those working in writing centres and for academics of all disciplines It is based on research and provides an important set of theoretical arguments developed through reflection on writing centre practices about student writing and the work of the university Professor Sioux McKenna Centre for Higher Education Research Teaching and Learning Rhodes University How do we select and train tutors How do we work with faculty How do we combat the image that we are remedial a fix it shop How do we prove our worth How do we show that we improve retention Changing Spaces demonstrates the flexibility of writing centers and the unique roles they play in South Africa Writing centers everywhere represent institutional responses to the learning needs of their students and they do so because writing centers adapt easily to different contexts and situations They meet students where they are as a group and individually Professor Leigh Ryan Writing Center Director University of Maryland USA

Radical Writing Center Praxis

Laura Greenfield,2019-04-15 In Radical Writing Center Praxis Laura Greenfield calls for a paradigm change in writing centers imagining a field whose very reason for being is to facilitate justice and peace The book calls on readers to more critically examine power and agency in writing centers and to imagine new possibilities for the field s theories and practices Large intersecting systems of oppression manifest in the everyday practices of institutions classrooms and writing centers Local practices in turn influence the surrounding world Radical Writing Center Praxis therefore challenges the writing center field to resist assumptions of political neutrality and instead to redefine itself in terms of more explicit ethical commitments In this paradigm it is clear that to engage in anti oppression work is not merely a special interest but rather a vital interest to all Introducing the concepts and vocabulary of radical politics Radical Writing Center Praxis examines the tensions between the field s professed beliefs and everyday practices and offers a process by which the writing center discipline as a whole might rebuild itself anew It will be invaluable to writing center directors tutors scholars and students as well as to administrators and compositionists

Writing Centers

in the Higher Education Landscape of the Arabian Gulf Osman Z. Barnawi, 2017-09-06 This book addresses issues surrounding writing centers in the Arabian Gulf region. Including a foreword by Professor Ken Hyland it brings together a number of thought provoking chapters on the history concept and ground realities coupled with critical comparative discussions of writing centres in the region. The book begins by offering critical historical accounts of writing centers in the Gulf countries before moving onto empirical research and reports on pedagogical practices that vividly capture the on the ground realities faced and experienced by different actors. These accounts serve to highlight how the writing centers vary between countries as well as how they differ from the more well known writing centers in the US and the UK. Finally the book explores what sort of commonalities and differences the current trend of writing centres is producing within and between the six countries of the Arabian Gulf. This book will be highly relevant to those involved with writing centres along with directors, policymakers, researchers and teacher educators in the fields of Education and Sociology particularly those with an interest in the Arabian Gulf area.
