Kleyn, Frans Viljoen, 1998 FCS Criminal Law L3, Competition Law in South Africa Precious N. Ndlovu, 2022-06-20 Derived from the renowned multi volume International Encyclopaedia of Laws this practical analysis of competition law and its interpretation in South Africa covers every aspect of the subject the various forms of restrictive agreements and abuse of dominance prohibited by law and the rules on merger control tests of illegality filing obligations administrative investigation and enforcement procedures civil remedies and criminal penalties and raising challenges to administrative decisions Lawyers who handle transnational commercial transactions will appreciate the explanation of fundamental differences in procedure from one legal system to another as well as the international aspects of competition law Throughout the book the treatment emphasizes enforcement with relevant cases analysed where appropriate An informative introductory chapter provides detailed information on the economic legal and historical background including national and international sources scope of application an overview of substantive provisions and main notions and a comprehensive description of the enforcement system including private enforcement The book proceeds to a detailed analysis of substantive prohibitions including cartels and other horizontal agreements vertical restraints the various types of abusive conduct by the dominant firms and the appraisal of concentrations and then goes on to the administrative enforcement of competition law with a focus on the antitrust authorities powers of investigation and the right of defence of suspected companies This part also covers voluntary merger notifications and clearance decisions as well as a description of the judicial review of administrative decisions Its succinct yet scholarly nature as well as the practical quality of the information it provides make this book a valuable time saving tool for business and legal professionals alike Lawyers representing parties with interests in South Africa will welcome this very useful guide and academics and researchers will appreciate its value in the study of international and comparative competition law Fresh Perspectives: Commercial Law 1 ,2006 Insurance Law in South Africa Daleen Millard, Birgit Kuschke, 2018-04-19 Derived from the renowned multi volume International Encyclopaedia of Laws this book provides valuable practical insight into both public supervisory legislation concerning insurance and private insurance contract law in South Africa An informative general introduction surveying the legal political financial and commercial background and surroundings of insurance provides a sound foundation for the specific detail that follows The book covers all essential aspects of the law and regulation governing insurance policies and instruments Its detailed exposition includes examination of the form of the insurance company and its reserves and investments the insurance contract the legal aspects of the various branches of property and liability insurance motor vehicle insurance schemes life insurance health insurance and workmen s compensation schemes reinsurance co insurance and pooling taxation of insurance and risk management and prevention Succinct yet eminently practical the book will be a valuable resource for lawyers handling cases affecting South Africa It will be of practical utility to those both in public service and private practice called on to develop and to apply the laws of insurance and of special interest as a contribution to the much needed harmonization of insurance law      Law of Defamation in Commonwealth Africa Jill Cottrell, 2018-08-17

First published in 1998 this book is an exposition of the law of defamation as it applies in those countries excluding South Africa It discusses or refers to hundreds of cases from those jurisdictions as well as many important precedents from England analysing the law and discussing how far the courts have developed their own approaches to the law and to what extent the law reflects the values of traditional society and customary law It thus shows how the law is being used in a field which is both intensely political and reflects important social interests Though directed mainly at legal practitioners teachers and students therefore it would be of interest to the media the defendants in the overwhelming majority of the cases and to scholars in the social sciences      Beginner's Guide for Law Students, 4th Ed D * Viljoen Kleyn (F.),      Foundations of South African Law ,2002      Bowker's Law Books and Serials in Print ,1986      Ideological Virgins and Other Myths Joanne Fedler, 2001      The African Book Publishing Record ,2009      Law Books in Print: Subject index J-Z ,1997
