A Place to Pray Roberta C. Bondi, 1998 In many ways the Lord's Prayer is the most fundamental of all Christian prayers It was given by Jesus in response to his disciples explicit request that he teach them to pray and throughout the period of the early church along with the Apostles Creed it was regarded as a basic catechistic text For a large number of people in our own period however trying to pray this prayer in any meaningful way is fraught with difficulties Roberta Bondi contends that Christians are called to love God and our neighbors as ourselves and that the Lord's Prayer prayed honestly from the places we really are is a basic tool to help us do it A Place to Pray Reflections on the Lord's Prayer is not an exegetical book rather the reflections in it which draw from the author's own experiences teaching and study of the early church are presented in a series of letters to a fictional friend In these letters Bondi addresses many of the issues that make praying the Lord's Prayer difficult At the same time she helps readers use the prayer as a means of helping them love God neighbor and self An excellent resource for personal spiritual growth and development this volume is also well suited for adult study groups and is an ideal text for courses in Christian Spirituality Theology Worship and Pastoral Care The War Manual C. B. Grace, 2008-03-14 As Christians we have been fighting in a war that we have not trained for and we are not prepared for It is time for us to train for the battles ahead This manual is designed to help churches and ministries ramp up their prayer coverage It applies a military model and the principle of agreement to corporate prayer The ideas and principles can be applied in any type of group setting The Wisconsin Baptist , 1985
