Building Basic Competencies In Social Work Research An Experiential Approach:

Building Basic Competencies in Social Work Research Reginald O. York, 1997 This book takes a unique approach to learning social work research methods it covers all of the topics mandated by the CSWE using a skill building and hands on approach The authors intention is to turn students into active learners who practice various aspects of social work research from conducting a literature review to developing methodology analyzing data and drawing conclusions as they go through the material Provides a hands on approach that encourages active learning by having students learn a concept or principle and then put it into practice Includes all CSWE mandated research methods topics Glossaries of terms at the ends of most chapters help students learn new vocabulary For readers students interested in Social Work Research Methods courses

Research Methods for Social Workers Bonnie L. Yegidis, Robert W. Weinbach, Barbara Morrison-Rodriguez, 1999 A text for a one semester or one quarter course on research methods in social work for undergraduate or graduate level

Prepares readers to become critical consumers of research literature to begin to design and implement research and to evaluate practice effectiveness Coverage encompasses knowl

Conducting Social Work Research Reginald O. York, 1998 KEY BENEFIT Social workers at any level in the profession will find this reference extremely helpful as they foray into the ever increasing important research stage of their careers As the need and desire for social workers continue to increase this book will help those learn the proper ways to conduct research in the field Readers are given information on specific tasks in research in which they will be called upon to evaluate alternative ways to complete each task in the research process this book focuses on the purposes of research and the entire research process Social workers

Evaluation for Social Workers Peter Gabor (Sociologist), Yvonne A. Unrau, Richard M. Grinnell, 1998 Social Work Education and the Grand Challenges R. Paul Maiden, Eugenia L. Weiss, 2023-04-04 The Grand Challenges for Social Work GCSW provides an agenda for society and for the social work profession The 13 GCSW have been codified by the American Academy of Social Work and Social Welfare and are emerging as a significant underpinning in the education of undergraduate and graduate social work students throughout the USA This volume serves as a guide as to how this can best be achieved in alignment with the 2022 Educational Policy and Accreditation Standards EPAS from the Council of Social Work Education Divided into four parts Individual and Family Well Being Stronger Social Fabric A Just Society The Grand Challenges in the Field Each chapter introduces a Grand Challenge situates it within the curricula and provides teaching practices in one of the targeted domains as well as learning objectives class exercises and discussions By showing how to facilitate class discussion manage difficult conversations and address diversity equity and inclusion as part of teaching the topic this book will be of interest to all faculty teaching at both undergraduate and graduate levels It should be noted that there are additional supplementary chapters beyond the 13 GCSW that provide further context for the reader Applying Research Knowledge Robert W. Weinbach, Richard M. Grinnell, Lynne M. Taylor, Yvonne A. Unrau, 1999 Does the social work profession value research based knowledge as a basis for social policy Serving as a compass for the problems in society that need attention and resolution the research base of social work may be the most imperative guide to social work practice However it is often overshadowed by the actual labor of the profession This book combines research with practice providing research knowledge in a workbook format that brings social work to life This workbook provides exercises that enable readers to learn by doing This edition is broken down into more topic units for ease of reference and there are more questions to apply to each unit Sample research studies featured in the book include Financial Victimization of the Elderly the Role of the Eligibility Worker in Public Welfare and Sexual Adjustment Following Spinal Cord Injuries Educators social work researchers and social workers Evaluating
