The War for Europe and North Africa

BEFORE YOU READ

In the last section, you saw how the American involvement in World War II affected life on the home front.

In this section, you will see how the United States, Britain, and the Soviet Union combined to defeat Germany and its partners in Europe.

AS YOU READ

Take notes on the time line below. Fill it in with events that led to the defeat of Germany.

The United States and Britain Join Forces (pages 569–570)

What were the goals of the American and British alliance?

In late December 1941, a few weeks after Pearl Harbor, President Roosevelt met with British Prime Minister Winston Churchill. They planned their war strategy. They agreed that the first thing to do was to defeat Hitler's Germany. Roosevelt and Churchill began a lasting friendship and a strong alliance between America and Britain.

After war was declared, German U-boats increased attacks on American ships in the Atlantic. Many American ships were sunk. The Allies organized convoys, or groups, for shared protection. Warships and airplanes escorted the convoys. They used sonar and radar to find and destroy many German submarines.

The United States also started building ships at a rapid pace. Soon there were more Allied cargo ships, or Liberty ships, being made than being sunk. By mid-1943, the tide of the Battle of the Atlantic had turned in favor of the Allies.

1. What was the Battle of the Atlantic, and how did the Allies win it?
