Journey Around:

A Journey Around Our America Louis G. Mendoza, 2012-09-15 Immigration and the growing Latino population of the United States have become such contentious issues that it can be hard to have a civil conversation about how Latinoization is changing the face of America. So in the summer of 2007 Louis Mendoza set out to do just that. Starting from Santa Cruz California he bicycled 8 500 miles around the entire perimeter of the country talking to people in large cities and small towns about their experiences either as immigrants or as residents who have welcomed or not Latino immigrants into their communities. He presented their enlightening sometimes surprising firsthand accounts in Conversations Across Our America Talking About Immigration and the Latinoization of the United States. Now in A Journey Around Our America Mendoza offers his own account of the visceral emotional intellectual and spiritual dimensions of traveling the country in search of a deeper broader understanding of what it means to be Latino in the United States in the twenty first century. With a blend of first and second person narratives blog entries poetry and excerpts from conversations he had along the way Mendoza presents his own aspirations for and critique of social relations political ruminations personal experiences and emotional vulnerability alongside the stories of people from all walks of life including students activists manual laborers and intellectuals. His conversations and his experiences as a Latino on the road reveal the multilayered complexity of Latino life today as no academic study or newspaper report ever could.

Diary of a Journey Through Mongolia and Tibet in 1891 and 1892 William Woodville Rockhill, 1894

The Journey Vinod Mahbubani, 2008 The author recounts the true story of his travels. His adventures begin in Boston and end some five months later along The Great Wall of China. The journey sees him take in several of the world's most important landmarks in around eighty towns and cities over a staggering 40 000 mile journey. That's quite some adventure! Whether it's the Niagara Falls in North America the Rainforest in Australia or Tropical Islands in Asia there is something for everyone in this epic journey spanning four of the world's six continents. Across oceans deserts and distant lands there is a story to tell packed with adventure and experiences of a different kind. Come join me on this special journey and may it encourage you to explore and discover the world on a similar journey of your own. 5 star rating on Amazon. An entertaining read substantially well written informative and packed with invaluable traveller's tips. I thoroughly recommend it and what's more I'll be looking out for Vinod's next book.
