A World Of Difference Encountering And Contesting Development 2nd Edition

Paul Cloke, Philip Crang, Mark Goodwin

A World Of Difference Encountering And Contesting Development 2nd Edition:

A World of Difference Philip W. Porter, David R. Faust, 2009-08-08 Widely regarded as the standard text on development geography this volume examines the nature and causes of global inequality and critically analyzes contemporary approaches to economic development across the third world. Students gain a deeper understanding of the interacting dynamics of culture, gender, race, and class. Biophysical factors such as climate, population, and natural resources and economic and political processes all of which have led to the present day disparities between the first and third worlds. Numerous examples, sidebars, and figures illustrate how people in the global South are experiencing and contesting the forces of globalization. New to This Edition Updated to reflect a decade of economic, political, and social changes. Extensively revised, more fully integrates postcolonial and feminist perspectives. Broadens the prior edition's focus on Africa with examples from around the world. A chapter on the promises and pitfalls of sustainable development.

A World of Difference Eric S. Sheppard, 2009 Widely regarded as the authoritative text on development geography this volume examines the nature and causes of global inequality and critically analyzes contemporary approaches to economic development across the third world. Students gain a deeper understanding of the interacting dynamics of culture, gender, race, and class. A World of Difference Eric Sheppard, Philip W. Porter, David R. Faust, Richa Nagar, 2009-08-08 Widely regarded as the authoritative text on development geography this volume examines the nature and causes of global inequality and critically analyzes contemporary approaches to economic development across the third world. Students gain a deeper understanding of the interacting dynamics of culture, gender, race, and class. Biophysical factors such as climate, population, and natural resources and economic and political processes all of which have led to the present day disparities between the first and third worlds. Numerous examples, sidebars, and figures illustrate how people in the Global South are experiencing and contesting the forces of globalization.

Theories and Practices of Development Katie Willis, 2020-12-17 The newly updated third edition provides a clear and user friendly introduction to the complex debates around how development has been understood and achieved. It has been fully updated and expanded to reflect global political and economic shifts as well as new approaches to development. The book deals with the evolution of development ideas and policies focusing on economic, political, social, environmental, and spatial dimensions. It highlights how development cannot be considered as a neutral concept but is entwined with inequalities in power at local as well as national and global scales. A new chapter on politics and development presents debates around development and democracy, civil society organizations, and human rights. Sections on diversity and development have been expanded and the book considers the future of development in the era of the Sustainable Development Goals (SDGs). The use of boxed examples, tables, and illustrations helps students understand complex theoretical ideas and also demonstrates how development theories are put into practice in the real world Each chapter ends with a summary section discussion topics suggestions for further reading and website resources This key text provides a clear and thorough explanation of key development theories and practices The third edition will remain an invaluable resource for undergraduate students in geography politics and development studies A Neoliberal Framework for Urban Housing Development in the Global South Sampa Chisumbe, Clinton Ohis Aigbavboa, Erastus Mwanaumo, Wellington Didibhuku Thwala, 2024-03-22

A Neoliberal Framework for Urban Housing Development in the Global South highlights the factors which predict urban housing development from developing countries perspective providing a guide for countries in the sub Sahara A Dictionary of Human Geography Alasdair Rogers, Noel Castree, Rob Kitchin, 2013-04-26

A Dictionary of Human Geography is a brand new addition to Oxford's Paperback Reference Series offering over 2 000 clear and concise entries on human geography terms From basic terms and concepts to biographical entries acronyms organisations and major periods and schools in the history of human geography it provides up to date accurate and accessible information It also includes entry level web links that are listed and regularly updated on a dedicated companion website This dictionary is a reliable reference for students of human geography and ancillary subjects for researchers and professionals in the field and for interested generalists Introducing Human Geographies Paul

Cloke, Philip Crang, Mark Goodwin, 2013-12-05 Introducing Human Geographies is the leading guide to human geography for undergraduate students explaining new thinking on essential topics and discussing exciting developments in the field This new edition has been thoroughly revised and updated and coverage is extended with new sections devoted to biogeographies cartographies mobilities non representational geographies population geographies public geographies and securities

Presented in three parts with 60 contributions written by expert international researchers this text addresses the central ideas through which human geographers understand and shape their subject Part I Foundations engages students with key ideas that define human geography's subject matter and approaches through critical analyses of dualisms such as local global society space and human nonhuman Part II Themes explores human geography's main sub disciplines with sections devoted to biogeographies cartographies cultural geographies development geographies economic geographies environmental geographies historical geographies political geographies population geographies social geographies urban and rural geographies Finally Part III Horizons assesses the latest research in innovative areas from mobilities and securities to non representational geographies This comprehensive stimulating and cutting edge introduction to the field is richly illustrated throughout with full colour figures maps and photos These are available to download on the companion website located at www.routledge.com/9781444135350

Environmental Politics for a Changing World Ronnie D. Lipschutz, Doreen Stabinsky, 2018-07-12 This book argues that environmental problems are first and foremost political and therefore about power Using a framework of political economy and political ecology the authors deconstruct current environmental problems to identify root causes and address those problems through mobilization of collective action and social power The second edition also offers Updated examples and stories of political struggles and the actors involved Explicit attention to various forms of power in environmental politics including structural and social power Local politics and collective action as related to global environmental politics Discussion of emerging issues such as synthetic biology commodification and financialization of nature including carbon markets and geoengineering

Geopolitics and Development Marcus Power,2019-01-25 Geopolitics and Development examines the historical emergence of development as a form of governmentality from the end of empire to the Cold War and the War on Terror It illustrates the various ways in which the meanings and relations of development as a discourse an apparatus and an aspiration have been geopolitically imagined and enframed The book traces some of the multiple historical associations between development and diplomacy and seeks to underline the centrality of questions of territory security statehood and sovereignty to the pursuit of development along with its enrolment in various ordering practices In making a case for greater attention to the evolving nexus between geopolitics and development and with particular reference to Africa the book explores the historical and contemporary geopolitics of foreign aid the interconnections between development and counterinsurgency the role of the state and social movements in re imagining development the rise of re emerging donors like China India and Brazil and the growing significance of South South flows of investment trade and development cooperation Drawing on post colonial and postdevelopment approaches and on some of the author s own original empirical research this is an essential critical and interdisciplinary analysis of the complex and dynamic political geographies of global development Primarily intended for scholars and post graduate students in development studies human geography African studies and international relations this book provides an engaging invaluable and up to date resource for making sense of the complex entanglement between geopolitics and development past and present
