In the early morning of February 24 1984 Janet Cannon Myers a beautiful young mother poet and dancer was found dead lying amid an explosion on her living room floor There were only two men in the whole world who could possibly have committed the deed her husband Kerry and one of his closest friends Bill Fontanille The media blitz immediately after the murder featured stories of a badly injured grieving husband an all night fight and hostage situation as he vainly tried to protect his family his desperate call to the police and charges against Bill Fontanille the scorned lover for attacking Kerry Myers almost killing his two and a half year old son and bludgeoning to death Kerry s wife But upon close examination of Kerry s and Bill s statements to the police the prosecutor s office found a troubling coincidence Their accounts of what happened were virtual mirror images the stories all but identical except that each accused the other of attacking him with either a knife or a bat immediately upon entry into the Myers house that late Thursday afternoon Each man vowed his innocence in fact each man said he hadn t even seen Janet during that long evening much less her corpse After four grand juries and three trials over seven years both men were sent to prison yet no one including the judge and jury who convicted them and the district attorney s office that prosecuted them has been able to determine who did what to whom and why Perhaps until now that is Through hundreds of interviews exhaustive research in thousands of pages of documents and
