Transmedia Storytelling

Amanda S. Hovious, 2015-11-10 This practical and thorough guide offers clear explanations of what transmedia storytelling is and shows how it can be integrated into library programming that fosters multimodal literacy with K-12 learners When fictional worlds are brought to life in multiple media via books and comics or through films, animated shorts, television, audio recordings, and games, it is called transmedia storytelling Transmedia storytelling offers children's and teen librarians at public libraries, K-12 school librarians, and educators an effective method for bringing story to youth a perfect fit for today's media-saturated environment This book demonstrates how to create new pathways to the future of stories and storytelling The book serves as a guide to integrating transmedia storytelling into library programs and services It defines transmedia storytelling, identifies the key connections between it and 21st century learning, discusses the role of librarians and libraries in supporting and promoting transmedia storytelling, and provides concrete examples of transmedia programs The suggested programs range from transmedia storytimes for early literacy learners to maker programs for young adults can be implemented with different levels of technology capabilities and within numerous library settings In addition the book offers practical advice on technology planning for libraries that plan to incorporate transmedia storytelling     Branding Books Across the Ages Helleke van den Braber,Jeroen Dera,Jos Joosten,Maarten Steenmeijer,2021-04-20 As marketing specialists know all too well our experience of products is prefigured by brands trademarks that identify a product and differentiate it from its competitors This process of branding has hitherto gained little academic discussion in the field of literary studies Literary authors and the texts they produce though are constantly branded from the early modern period onwards they have been both the object and the initiator of a complex marketing process This book analyzes this branding process throughout the centuries focusing on the case of the Netherlands To what extent is our experience of Dutch literature prefigured by brands and what role does branding play when introducing European authors in the Dutch literary field or vice versa By answering these questions the volume seeks to show how literary scholars can account for the phenomenon of branding     Diversity in Narration and

Writing Kornélia Horváth,Judit Mudriczki,Sarolta Osztróczky,2022-01-10 The essays in this volume focus on different prose and audiovisual narratives and their academic and cultural significance as seen in the twenty first century Their diverse interpretations of the novel as a genre provide a current academic overview on the variety of interpretive cultures and traditions Divided into three sections the book consciously takes an international perspective in both narrative theory and novel studies in order to deepen the reader s understanding of classic American and European authors including Gustave Flaubert Lewis Carroll James Joyce Doris Lessing Jack London J M Coetzee and David Lodge In addition it also offers a profound contribution to international scholarship as it covers works of classic and contemporary Hungarian and Central European writers that have not been discussed in English before With its unprecedented insights into the depth and diversity of narrative prose traditions the book will inspire innovative approaches to the concept of the novel in European academic criticism today     How to Write Like Game of Thrones (Unauthorized Guide) Steven Gordon,2017-07-20 Have you ever wanted to write an epic fantasy novel like Game of Thrones Well you can Studying George R R Martin s epic Game of Thrones novels can be an intimidating task so I have undertaken to do it for you I have gone through the thousands of pages of the Game of Thrones novels to distill important lessons to follow and equally important lessons not to follow for writing an epic work of fiction This book is written in easy to understand prose with tips you can use to write great fiction     Maps and

Mapping in Children's Literature Nina Goga,Bettina Kümmelring-Meibauer,2017-08-15 Maps and Mapping in Children s Literature is the first comprehensive study that investigates the representation of maps in children s books as well as the impact of mapping on the depiction of landscapes seascapes and cityscapes in children s literature The chapters in this volume pursue a comparative approach as they represent a wide spectrum of diverse genres and national children s literatures by examining a wealth of children s books from Canada Denmark Germany Italy Norway Russia the United Kingdom and the USA The theoretical and methodological approaches range from literary studies developmental psychology maps and geography literacy ecocriticism historical contextualization with both new historicist and political historical leanings and intermediality to materialist cartographies cultural studies island studies and genre studies By this this volume aims at embedding children s literature in a broader field of literary and cultural studies thus situating children s literature research within a general context of literary theory
