And Exploring Miraculous Michael O'Neill:

Exploring the Miraculous Michael O'Neill, 2015-12-31 Come explore the miraculous with Miracle Hunter Michael O'Neill. O'Neill, a graduate of Stanford University, member of the Mariological Society of America and host of the television series Miracle Hunters, takes you on an amazing tour of miracles large and small and answers some of our most burning questions: Are miracles all that important? What do miracles have to do with me? How does the Church determine if a miracle is valid? What do miracle cures have to do with canonization? Do saints perform miracles? What are apparitions and why do they appear? What is a Eucharistic miracle? Can statues, icons, or effigies really be miraculous? What about incorruptibles and stigmata? Thoroughly researched and documented, Exploring the Miraculous will enlighten and fascinate but most of all will guide us to Christ, who is the center of our lives and the true object of our faith.

Finding the Virgin Mary Judith M. Davis, 2024-12-18 Stories about the Virgin Mary began to appear in the second century, a spring of tradition that branched off from the mainstream teaching of the canonical gospels. This developed into a torrent of texts about Mary, her relationship with God and her motherhood. This book translates and interprets such stories about Mary from the beginnings of Christianity to modern times. The narrative or story theology of these works shows her to be a partner with her son Jesus in the work of salvation. Early stories depict Mary as chosen from childhood and she is shown at the Last Supper with other women. Medieval tales recount the miracles she works to cure both physical and moral failings. Stories of her appearances: Our Lady of Guadalupe, Mexico; Our Lady of Lourdes, France; and Our Lady of Fatima, Portugal, have been told and retold across the centuries. Today Mary is still seen as an icon of women's agency, celebrated in song, film, and art of every kind. This book uncovers her history and reveals her power through the life and message of this woman of faith.

Divine Horror Cynthia J. Miller, A. Bowdoin Van Riper, 2017-05-15 From Rosemary's Baby (1968) to The Witch (2015), horror films use religious entities to both inspire and combat fear and to call into question or affirm the moral order. Churches provide sanctuary; clergy cast out evil; religious icons become weapons; holy ground becomes battleground, but all of these may be turned from their original purpose. This collection of new essays explores fifty years of genre horror in which manifestations of the sacred or profane play a material role. The contributors explore portrayals of the war between good and evil and their archetypes in such classics as The Omen (1976), The Exorcist (1973), and Dracula Has Risen from the Grave (1968) as well as in popular franchises like Hellraiser and Hellboy and cult films such as God Told Me To (1976), Thirst (2009), and Frailty (2001).

What to Say and How to Say It, Volume III Brandon Vogt, 2022-10-14 It's not uncommon for someone who doesn't understand the Catholic faith to question believers on hot-button topics such as contraception and Church scandals. Are you confident in your responses, or do you try to avoid the conversation because you don't know if you'll get it right? In What to Say and How to Say It, Volume 3, Brandon Vogt, bestselling and award-winning author and senior publishing director of Word on Fire Catholic Ministries, tackles these critical issues as well as salvation, the Bible, miracles, the Mass, and end-of-life concerns to give you the tools you need to be clear and convincing as you share your convictions with those around you Each chapter offers an overview of the topic and a straightforward explanation of what the Church teaches Then you ll learn about the most common contemporary arguments against the Church s teachings followed by step by step instructions for responding intelligently and confidently Vogt also shares interviews with experts on each topic including Christopher West Mike Aquilina Stephanie Gray Connors and Karlo Broussard
